Jury Probes Claim County Road Oil Defective

OFFICIALS OF COUNTY ARE QUIZZED

Charges Hurdled During Recent Campaign to
Be Investigated

The 1936 grand jury reached down into its bag of tricks today and came up with its hands full of road oil.

Investigation of road oil contracts and purchases for the past two years, and more particularly for the past six months was launched by the investigating body, with the grand jury sitting as a committee of the whole.

The situation to be investigated is as murky as the subject. Charges and counter-charges have filled the air with smoke and the question of confusion.

Virtually all parties in the now-famous controversy were called before the grand jury yesterday and today in an effort to clear it up.

Political enemies of W. C. Jerome, defeated for re-election as supervisor, touched off the dynamite contained in the 1936 road oil contract three days before the election, when they loosed a blast in his general direction.

They charged through the (Please Turn to Page 2, Col. 2)

FIRE CAUSES $7000 LOSS

Causing damage to machinery, equipment and buildings estimated at $7000, fire at 3 p. m. yesterday swept the plant of the Kee-see Tank and Pump company, located on the 101 highway near Anaheim.

The blaze started in the office of the plant when gasoline from a five-gallon can was spilled on the floor and accidentally ignited, according to Fire Chief J. A. Scherman of the state forestry department at Orange.

Delay in turning in an alarm resulted when an employee of the plant, finding the telephone there out of order, was required to run some distance to a neighboring house to telephone the fire department.

Scherman's force had the blaze under control within a half hour after arriving at the plant, and managed to save about $3000 worth of machinery from destruction.

The office building, a frame and corrugated iron structure, was virtually destroyed. Ira Keese of Anaheim is owner of the plant.

Orange Men Sue For Crash Damages

Walter J. Leichtfuss, W. W. Eisenbaum and A. E. Eisenbaum started suit in superior court today against Raymond P. Ferry, asking damages totalling $10,065 as the result of a traffic crash Aug. 31, 1936, in Fullerton.

Leichtfuss, driver of a truck which collided with the Ferry car, is asking $10,000. The two Eisenbaum brothers and Leichtfuss, as officers of the Orange Tin Shop, are asking $65 for damages to the truck.

Win a Dollar for Christmas!

Merry Christmas, kids! Here's the chance to win yourself a brand new $1 bank account absolutely free.

Simply sit down and write The Journal a letter on "Why I Like Christmas."

Writer of the winning letter every day between now and Christmas will be given a $1 savings account in The First National Bank. That means there will be 20 bank accounts of $1 each given away between today and jolly old Christmas eve.

You can win one of these for yourself if you write a winning letter. The rules are easy. Here they are:

1. Letters must not be more than 200 words.

2. The contest is limited to

AGED CYCLIST IS FATALLY INJURED

Unidentified Man Killed
In Collision With Car
On Manchester

For the second time in three weeks, the body of an unidentified bicyclist killed in traffic in Orange county lay in a mortuary today while officers sought to find his name and locate relatives.

The second victim, a man of 65 to 68 years, was killed about 9:30 a. m. today on Manchester avenue west of Anaheim when he was struck by a car driven by Raymond Todd, R. F. D. No. 2, Orange, officers reported.

DRIVE CAREFULLY—DON'T KILL!

On Nov. 9 a cyclist was killed on highway 101 near Serra and lay unidentified for more than two weeks before relatives were found. Deputy Coroner Bert Casteix said Todd told him the elderly cyclist swerved suddenly in front of Todd's car this morning when he was hit by a gust of wind. Todd was not held.

The unidentified victim was headed for Buena Park at the time of the fatal crash. He wore a blue jumper, blue work shirt, blue serge trousers, grey socks and black oxford shoes. In an army knapsack he carried a pair of pliers, two flashlights, a clean shirt and a clean pair of overalls.

Officers Harry Aldrich and Ernest Sawyer of the California Highway patrol, who investigated, were unable to find any papers giving a clue to the victim's name or address.

SAMARITAN TO SUE INSULL

CHICAGO. (AP)—Mme. Helene Coyinzoglu, the Greek "mystery woman" who sheltered Samuel Insull in Athens, arrived today determined, her attorney said, to sue the deposed utilities head over some undisclosed "pieces of personal property."

Mme. Coyinzoglu came from New York with Peter T. Kouridas, attorney. Kouridas denied to interviewers that his client sought money for her services, rendered during Insull's stay in Greece, while he fought extradition to the United States on mail fraud and other charges in 1933 and 1934.

"But it's not a question of money. Mme. Coyinzoglu demands the return of certain pieces of personal property," he said.

Church Bell at El Toro Stolen

The bell's missing from the El Toro church, and residents were getting pretty anxious about it today. They hope it's found before Sunday.

W. C. Armstrong, treasurer of the church, called the sheriff's office today to ask aid of officers in locating the bell, which has been removed several times before by juvenile pranksters. Last time it was found in a tree.

Soviets Approve New Constitution

MOSCOW. (AP)—Soviet Russia's new "Stalin constitution," acclaimed here as the most democratic in the world, was approved in principle tonight by the All-Union Congress of Soviets.

British Oppose Aid for Spain

LONDON. (AP)—Great Britain will protest before the international non-intervention committee tomorrow the participation of nationals from other countries in the Spanish war, Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden told the house of commons tonight. At the same time, the German embassy issued a denial of a report in authoritative British circles that between "2000 and 5000 Germans" had arrived at Seville, Spain, to fight for the insurgents.

The reports did not make clear whether the "Germans" were volunteers or regular soldiers.

Responsible British sources, in relaying the "German" reports, also said they had heard that a Soviet general, 100 Soviet officers and 20 tri-motored Russian planes were at Malaga to help the government forces.

JURY PUSHES RACE PROBE

W. H. McKague Testifies
Voluntarily But Was Not Arrested

Los Angeles sheriff's and federal officers today still pressed an investigation into a $3,000,000 Santa Ana sweepstakes proposition, declaring they would present further evidence to the county grand jury there.

Although W. H. McKague of Santa Ana, former investigator for the federal alcohol control board, was questioned further in Los Angeles yesterday, he was not arrested, and appeared voluntarily to give information at the request of Inspector Norris Stensland of the sheriff's office there.

McKague has never been in custody and was not arrested in connection with the investigation. An erroneous news story in Saturday's Journal to the effect that he had been arrested was based on an account of the investigation in the Los Angeles Times, confirmed locally by Sheriff Logan Jackson. McKague went voluntarily, accompanied by Jackson, to Los Angeles last Friday for questioning. The Journal regrets the error in its article.

NAVY IN HAWAII TO GET FOOD

SAN PEDRO. (AP)—Bound for navy dinner tables in Hawaii, where the shipping strike has threatened a food shortage, the supply ship Arctic is due to sail from San Pedro tomorrow night.

Aboard will be: 72,000 dozen eggs, 300,000 pounds of potatoes, 75,000 pounds of onions, 14,700 pounds of apples, 116,000 pounds of oranges, 12,500 pounds of lemons, 25,000 pounds of grapefruit, 20,000 pounds of carrots and 40,000 pounds of turkey, not to mention 8000 pounds of turnips and 5000 pounds of frankfurters.

An accusation by Harry Bridges, head of the International Longshoremen's association on the West coast, that Joseph P. Ryan, holder of a similar position in New York, was using his members to break a seamen's strike, was the latest move in the maritime strike situation today.

SECURITY CARD RETURN URGED

Santa Ana employees today were receiving the first of the federal social security account numbers issued here, but Frank R. Harwood, postmaster, reported, employees are slow in returning their applications to the postoffice.

Application forms, distributed last week by postal carriers, must be filled out and returned to the postoffice by Dec. 5. Harwood said that not more than 1000 forms of the 10,000 issued have been returned.

As rapidly as forms are received at the postoffice, account numbers are supplied and identification cards are issued.

PEACE MEET OPENED BY PRESIDENT

Urges 21 Countries Of Americas To Fight
All Aggression

BUENOS AIRES. (AP)—President Roosevelt declared today at a press conference there was no possibility of the United States entering the League of Nations.

His statement was made to Argentine newspapermen three hours before Mr. Roosevelt opened the Inter-American Peace Conference of 21 nations.

Questioned by Argentine newspapermen, in an interview at the United States embassy, as to whether there was a possibility of the United States joining the League, Mr. Roosevelt replied he believed he could answer "no."

Asked whether the Inter-American pact might propose a league of nations for the western hemisphere, the President said that was entirely in the hands of the conference.

President Roosevelt opened the peace conference tonight with an assertion that the 21 new world republics could help avert war in the old world by maintaining peace among themselves.

"Shoulder to Shoulder"
But at the same time, the President proposed that the American republics "make it clear" they stand "shoulder to shoulder" to the League of Nations.

EAST FEELS COLD SNAP

NEW YORK. (AP)—The East was swept today by a cold wave which tied up fresh water shipping, interfered with firemen, and caused general suffering.

Minimum temperatures in the northern half of the country, east of the Rockies, were everywhere below freezing. The warmest big city in the United States was Miami, with a minimum of 72.

The cold was connected with a high pressure area, its center covering southern Quebec and northern Vermont.

Cold spots reported included: Dulaski, N. Y., 28 below zero; Saranac Lake, N. Y., 24 below; Kane, Pa., 21 below; Machias, N. Y., 20 below; and Canton, N. Y., 14 below.

Approximately 100 barges were caught by ice in the Erie canal. A tug boat sank there under ice pressure, adding to traffic difficulties in the steadily narrowing channel. The nine crewmen escaped.

The movement of 73 vessels from Lake Superior toward the south was impeded by ice and a possibility was reported that they might not get through at all.

Expectant Mother, 16, And Husband Reunited By Police

A 16-year-old expectant mother was with her husband in Calipatria today, aided in her trip by the police department's "missionary fund," which prevented her from having to hitch-hike her way to the valley town.

Exhausted after hitch-hiking from Los Angeles here, Mrs. Lauretta Cagle appeared at the police station Sunday night. Mrs. Dorothy Russick, matron, took her to a hotel and got her a room and gave her money for two meals.

Yesterday morning Mrs. Russick met Mrs. Cagle, took her to the bus station, bought a ticket, and sent her on her way to rejoin her husband.

Where Peace Delegates Are in Session

In this beautiful and impressive congressional palace in Buenos Aires, delegates to the inter-American peace conference tonight began their work to "fight aggression" after listening to the opening address by President Roosevelt. The palace, shown above, is similar in architecture to the capital of the United States.

F.D.R.'s Bodyguard Dies Dancing

BUENOS AIRES. (AP)—August (Gus) Gennerich, 55, President Roosevelt's personal bodyguard, died today of a heart attack while dancing in a Buenos Aires restaurant. Gennerich, a former New York City detective, was pronounced dead by the President's physician, Dr. R. I. McIn-

CITY JOB FOR RASMUSSEN

Succeeds Preble Today
In Post As Building
Inspector Here

Harold Rasmussen, adjutant of the Santa Ana American Legion post and former builder, yesterday afternoon was appointed city building inspector to replace Sam Preble, who resigned.

The action was taken at an informal session of the council, and must be confirmed when the council meets next Monday night, in order to be official.

Preble, telling the council that he can make much more money in private employment as a builder and contractor than at the $150 per month salary paid by the city, handed in his resignation.

Rasmussen was nominated by Councilman William Penn, who reported that Rasmussen not only has been a builder and contractor, but also educated as an architect.

The new building inspector took up his duties today. Preble said he will start next Monday as local agent for Roy Russell, contractor, but wished to use the remainder of this week in preparing to take the new position. Preble was a contractor for 15 years before he took the city post.

WILL BE TRIED FOR MURDER

Accused of murdering Salvador Lopez in a gun battle here in April, 1929, Jesus Esquiville must stand trial in superior court.

He was held to answer without bond today after a preliminary hearing before Justice Kenneth Morrison. Charges will be filed Friday in superior court.

Lopez was shot in a gun duel across a Santa Ana street late at night when he and a friend emerged from an alley. He said in a dying statement that Esquiville fired at him.

NEGOTIATION TO SETTLE LOOMS

Conference Is Held on Plans by Ambassador
Bullitt and Delbos

PARIS. (AP)—France will offer the United States approximately $536,000,000, parliamentary circles forecast today, in full and final settlement of her war debts.

This offer, of twelve billion francs would amount roughly to one-eighth of the grand total of France's war debt plus interest accrued to date.

(United States treasury officers in Washington today calculated the total French indebtedness, with interest, as of Nov. 15 at $4,061,234,000.)

When France defaulted on her semi-annual payment last June 15 of $74,787,725, she was in default $250,292,292.

Members of the chamber of deputies indicated the offer would not be made in cash, but in equal annual installments over a 20 or 25-year period with no additional interest added during this time.

The estimate received no confirmation from the government and both the office of Premier Leon Blum and the American embassy denied it was mentioned at a conference yesterday between Blum and Ambassador William Bullitt.

While France has expressed official interest in re-opening the war debt question, it has been told any negotiations must await the return to Washington of President Roosevelt.

MOORE SAYS DISCUSSION HELD LAST SATURDAY

WASHINGTON. (AP)—R. Walton Moore, acting secretary of state, said today Ambassador William C. Bullitt had "casually discussed" the French war debt question with Foreign Minister Yvon Delbos in Paris.

The conversations took place last Saturday, but, Moore said, "there was no specification of the time or terms." France owes the United States $4,061,234,000.

BRITAIN RECEIVES ITS 'PLEASE REMIT' NOTE

LONDON. (AP)—No negotiations for a new settlement of British and French war debts under the tri-partite currency agreement are under way, informed sources said today.

London has received a new American "please remit" note for current and defaulted British war debts to the United States.

BOOM MARKS NOVEMBER

Santa Ana's building and business boom continued unchecked in November, monthly figures revealed today.

Building permits totaled $96,615 in construction authorized during the month, and postal receipts showed a gain of $457.16 over November of last year.

The month saw building permits for the year pass the million mark for the first time in six years. Building Inspector Sam Preble issued 118 permits, the largest number of the year, bringing the total number to 741.

November permits brought the year's total to $1,055,197, surpassing for the year pass the million mark for the first time in six years. Building Inspector Sam Preble issued 118 permits, the largest number of the year, bringing the total number to 741.

Postmaster Frank R. Harwood reported the year's postal receipts today as $152,832.70, a gain of $8850.96 over the same period of 1935.

For the quarter ending yesterday the total was $33,210.42, a gain of $3422.65. Receipts for the month were $14,236.54.

Business houses expressed confidence that the coming Christmas season will be the greatest since 1929, and they were backing up the prediction with heavy stocks of holiday merchandise.

PLAN MUSICAL EVENTS FOR YULE FETE

Christmas Program Here
To Be Launched By Stores Saturday

When Santa Ana merchants throw open their doors to the people of Orange county Saturday night, officially inaugurating the Christmas merchandising season, a two-hour program of music furnished by local artists will provide a festive atmosphere for the occasion.

Such was the announcement today of Leland Auer, chairman of music for this year's Christmas Preview, in revealing details of the program.

To Sing Carols
Emanating from the council chambers in the city hall, the entire program will be broadcast to the holiday crowds on the downtown streets from loud speakers atop the First National bank building.

The program begins at 6:58 p. m. when a chorus of singers will harmonize on Christmas carols.

At the stroke of 7, merchants are to darken their stores while the Rev. Harry E. Owings of the First Baptist church gives the invocation. The moment he concludes, lights in the stores and on the street decorations will be flashed on, revealing the season's offerings in a blaze of glory.

Varied Music
During the first hour the program will consist of songs by the young people's choir of the First Presbyterian church, Willard Bassett, tenor, the Santa Ana Junior college male quartet and Marion Graaf, soprano.

Included on the program during the second hour will be the Elks double quartet, Stanley Kurtz, baritone, an instrumental quartet under the direction of Ruth Armstrong, Holly Lash Visel, soprano, and the Cantando club.

Chandler Rites To Be Wednesday

Funeral services for William G. Chandler, 46, who died suddenly Monday at his home in the Mission court, Orange, will be held Wednesday.

MORE ABOUT GRAND JURY

Santa Ana Independent that the road oil being furnished by the Elen Refining company, on a reputed $30,000 contract, was insufficient. Don Jerome, son of the supervisor, is one of the officials of the company.

Burke Fights Back
Jerome retaliated by causing the arrest of Alvin B. Berry, editor of the Independent, and J. Frank Burke, former publisher of the Santa Ana Register, on charges of causing the insertion of an anonymous political advertisement.

Burke fought back with a $50,000 lawsuit against Jerome, charging false imprisonment, and Berry launched a $10,000 suit against William Iverson, partner of Don Jerome, charging libel.

In the meantime, John Ackerman, independent official, launched a malicious suit to compel Road Engineer Nat Neff to hand over his road oil records.

Samples 'Planted'
Supporters of Jerome charged that samples of the oil used for analysis, and which did not meet specifications, had been "planted" by Jerome's enemies. The charge was denied.

Jerome then made a public demand, through the board of supervisors, for grand jury investigation. It was started yesterday, with a parade of witnesses.

Neff was one of the first to be called. After him came County Division Engineers William De Wolfe and N. E. Bryan, Road Foreman Charles Henry, Charles Van Horn, road department employee, and two independent truck drivers, Roy Scott and Harold Morris.

Today both Jerome senior and Jerome junior were closeted with the jury. Iverson was subpoenaed, and District Attorney W. F. Menton sat in on the session.

The probe was slated to continue this afternoon.

Wednesday afternoon at two o'clock at the Gillogly Funeral chapel, with the Rev. William Holder, pastor of the Christian church officiating. Graveside rites will be under the direction of the Orange Elks lodge, of which he was a member.

Besieged Spanish rebels in Toledo during the rebellion ate horses to prevent starvation.

CITRUS FRUIT DAMAGED BY DRY WIND

Although the fourth serious desert wind of the current season buffeted limbs from shade trees, blew down signs and fanned two small fires into near-disastrous blazes, no serious damage from the cold, dry blow was reported today.

Citrus growers and officials said the usual injury to fruit trees which accompanies the desert winds was noted in field investigations this morning. Fruit is being bruised and scarred from whipping, but a small proportion of fruit had been blown from trees by noon.

No Boats Damaged
The heavy windstorm reached its height during the night, when blasts with a velocity of about 40 miles an hour were recorded. However, no injury to valuable craft was reported from Newport harbor.

One small boat was reported blown upon the beach at Newport, and a plate glass window in a malted milk shop at Newport was shattered by a particularly heavy blast of wind, officials reported.

Fanning a smoldering trash pile into flames on the Charles Henderson road on North Batavia street in Orange at 1 a. m. today, the wind blew sparks from the fire, which ignited a nearby wood pile and threatened destruction of a windbreak.

Fight Brush Fire
A crew from the state forestry fire department at Orange, under the direction of State Forest Ranger J. A. Scherman, extinguished the blaze before any appreciable amount of damage resulted.

The state fire department branch at San Juan Capistrano also extinguished a brush blaze in the hills near there at 6 a. m. today after it had burned over about an acre. The fire originated in a hedge adjoining the property.

The neon sign located on the grounds of the Christian Science church at Tenth and Main streets was blown down and broken by the wind.

TO NAME FOUR WATER UNITS

Led by Willis H. Warner of Huntington Beach, a water committee of five met here last night to prepare for naming four county-wide committees to study phases of the Orange county water problem.

Announcement will be made in a few days of the committee selections, Ross Shafer, secretary, said.

Acting for a committee of 50 formed last week, the group last night studied names for committees which will (1) assemble data regarding areas needing water and the amount of water needed; (2) assemble data on federal water conservation; (3) study sewage water reclamation; (4) continue study of how Orange county or units of the county could be benefited by joining the Metropolitan Water district.

KILLER WILL BE PROSECUTED

Imperial county officials today were preparing to prosecute a murder case against Jack Poe, eccentric Salton Sea area character, charged with shooting George Johnson of Placentia in an argument near Brawley Saturday night. Meanwhile arrangements were being completed for funeral services for Johnson, to be held tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock at the McAulay and Suters mortuary, Fullerton.

Johnson, witnesses said, was killed by a blast from Poe's shotgun, held not more than three feet from the victim's chest, after an argument concerning loading of boats on trailers. A coroner's jury blamed Poe for the shooting, and he is held on a murder charge.

Tomato Men Will Seek Price Boost

Tomato growers of California, who have felt this year that canners did not give them fair prices for their product, today girded their loins for an all-day discussion of their problems Saturday at Pasadena.

Called in connection with the state and national farm bureau conventions, the canning crops conference will bring speakers from several states on growing, marketing, handling and financing problems.

Important discussions include co-operative canning, which has been proposed here, and collective bargaining.

U. S. Launches New Destroyer

QUINCY, Mass. (AP)—The $4,000,000 U. S. destroyer Griddle, first of its type in the United States equipped with but a single smoke stack, was launched at the Fore River Shipyards today.

The vessel was christened by Mrs. Louis Buddy, 3rd, of East Orange, N. J., daughter of Capt. Charles Vernon Gridley, commander of Admiral Dewey's flagship, the U. S. S. Olympia, during the Spanish-American war, for whom the vessel was named.

NEFF TO PUSH SOUTH MAIN PROJECT

The fate of the South Main street extension project will be on the block Friday, when the state highway commission will hold its final budget hearing in San Francisco.

County Road Engineer Nat Neff today was authorized by the board of supervisors to attend the meeting, and to push efforts to include the $225,000 appropriation for the South Main program in the 1937 highway budget.

Plans as they stand now call for expenditure of $200,000 for surfacing and grading of the road, with $25,000 included for building of a new bridge over the head of Newport bay.

Entailed in the program will be the moving of the Eddie Martin airport building, and incidentally the refurbishing and general renovation of the airport, as a result of the move.

Indications are, Neff said, that the appropriation for the South Main street job will be included without struggle.

MISS LECH TO NAME QUEENS

Miss Zena Lech, women's physical education director for Santa Ana Junior college, will have charge of preliminary selection of candidates for a "queen" to represent Santa Ana on a Metropolitan water district float in the Tournament of Roses, it was announced today.

Miss Lech has been asked to choose eight or 10 girls from the sophomore class of the junior college. All candidates must be from five feet one inch to five feet three inches in height.

Other sophomore junior college girls may enter, the chamber of commerce said. M. R. O'Day, public relations director for MWD, will come here after the preliminary selection to take pictures of the candidates.

Final judging will be based on photographic charm, personality and appearance. A committee of artists and writers will be chosen by the chamber of commerce to make the final selection.

Each of the 13 member cities of Metropolitan water district will have "queens" on the float.

CHANGE DATE OF OPERETTA

Frances Willard junior high school will present its operetta, "Who's Who," originally scheduled for Friday night, on Thursday evening, so as not to conflict with the Santa Ana Jaycee football game scheduled for Dec. 4, it was announced today.

The operetta is one which originally was presented by the combined glee clubs of the school five years ago, and was selected for presentation this year because of its outstanding success at that time.

The production is under the direction of Esther Jean Davis, Helen Ramsey and Herbert Michel. There are 14 major characters in the show, and a combined chorus of 60 voices, selected from the girls' and boys' groups, Miss Davis said today. Wyllis Anderson of the physical education department is directing a special dance chorus of eight girls.

The lead roles are being taken by Carolyn Brinkerhoff, Beth Mitchell, Jean Humble, Carol Miller, Betty Love, Genevieve Reed, Lucille Cambert, Margaret Fields and Dorothy Fraser, from the girls' glee club, and Bill Hull, Kenneth Goodman, Daryl Sherkey, Harold Montano, Chester Briner, Warren McCarty, Budrey Benson and Robert Davis, from the boys' group.

Urge Farmer for Commission Post

From the state and national farm bureau conventions in Pasadena next week is expected to come a request to Governor Frank F. Merriam that he appoint an agricultural-minded man to the state railroad commission to replace W. J. Carr of Pasadena, local leaders said today.

Orange County farm bureau directors last week considered the problem without announcing definite action.

Leon O. Whitsell of Orange is a member of the commission, but has two more years remaining in his six-year term. Other members are M. B. Harris, Wallace L. Ware and Frank R. Devlin.

Girl, 13, Sneezes Every 5 Minutes

WASHINGTON. (AP)—Sneezing every five minutes, as she has most of the last 53 days, golden-haired Mary Margaret Cleer of nearby Fort Myer, Va., looked forward hopefully today to treatments at Johns Hopkins hospital in Baltimore.

The 13-year-old honor student who broke into a fit of sneezing at her school desk Oct. 8, has supplemented the efforts of doctors to stop her "ker-choos" with home remedies sent her in fan mail from many parts of the globe. None has worked.

MORE ABOUT PEACE MEET

prevent aggression should war flare abroad.

In the speech he had traveled 6000 miles to make, the United States chief executive urged "the strengthening of the processes of constitutional democratic government" as the "best" means to "prevent any future war among ourselves."

Adding that these processes should be made to "conform to the modern need for unity and efficiency" and at the same time to "preserve the individual liberties of our citizens," the President said:

Insist on Peace
"By so doing, the people of our nations, unlike the people of many nations who live under other forms of government, can and will insist on their intention to live in peace."

As a second move toward peace, the President urged the American republics to "strive even more strongly than in the past to prevent the creation of those conditions which give rise to war."

"Lack of social or political justice within the borders of any nation is always cause for concern," he said. "Through democratic processes we can strive to achieve for the Americas the highest possible standard of living conditions for all our people."

Speaks of Defense
"Men and women blessed with political freedom, willing to work and able to find work, rich enough to maintain their families and to educate their children, contented with their lot in life and on terms of friendship with their neighbors, will defend themselves to the utmost, but will never consent to take up arms for a war of conquest."

In this connection, the chief executive denounced trade barriers, asserting "it is no accident" that the nations which have erected the highest are those "which proclaim most loudly that they require war as an instrument of their policy."

Plan No Alliances
"It is no accident," he added, "that because of these suicidal policies and the suffering attending them, many of their people have come to believe with despair that the price of war seems less than the price of peace."

Mr. Roosevelt discussed his proposal for the American nations to stand "shoulder to shoulder" against aggression after asserting "this is no conference to form alliances, to divide the spoils of war, to partition countries, to deal with human beings as though they were the pawns in a game of chance."

The smithy of J. Y. Pratt, 74, at Essex, Conn., is the third structure to occupy the same site, which has been in the family for 258 years.

PREBLE SAYS LOCAL BOWL IS SAFE

Santa Ana municipal bowl grandstands are perfectly safe for a capacity crowd, Building Inspector Sam I. Preble told the city council yesterday afternoon in his last official act before resigning.

He said he found no evidence of termite damage, and that supports were in good condition. Extra nailing has been done by the park superintendent, he said.

Preble recommended that three footings on the west section should be lowered.

In informal session, the council directed the call for bids on an additional garbage truck, expected to cost about $2000.

Installation of street lights at the intersections of Lyon and Palm streets and at McFadden and Standard streets was approved on recommendation of Street Commissioner E. H. Layton.

Mrs. A. G. Flagg, appearing for the Salvation Army advisory board, appealed to the council for $233 to meet repair bills on the Salvation Army shelter. Action was deferred to the regular Monday night meeting of next week.

Mrs. Flagg said the shelter cared for 758 men during November.

Costa Mesa Wants To Use Sidewalk

Costa Mesa is upset about its sidewalk. There's only one in town, and pedestrians don't get to use it.

Through Supervisor N. E. West today they asked the board of supervisors to see if something couldn't be done about the situation.

Seems, said West, that boys on bicycles have usurped the proper uses of the sidewalk, and have converted it into a speedway.

Pedestrians claim they walk in the street, or proceed on the sidewalk at great risk.

The board decided state laws governing use of roads and walks would govern the situation without any more additional legislation.

Ontario Youth Injured in Crash

Don Casey, 23, Ontario, was recovering today from injuries resulting when a car in which he was riding yesterday crashed into a service station gas pump on El Toro road.

Driver of the car was D. F. Buckland, 29, Los Angeles, who told officers he was about to pass a truck but swerved when the truck turned unexpectedly, causing his car to crash into the pump.

TELEPHONE RATES

Now in effect is a new schedule of rates for day and night Long Distance telephone service.

SAVE AFTER 7:00 P. M.
NIGHT rates for Long Distance, both station-to-station and person-to-person, now start at 7 o'clock in the evening and continue until 4:30 A. M. The former night period, midnight to 4:30 A. M., is discontinued. The new night period, 7 P. M. to 4:30 A. M., makes night calling available at attractive discount rates at more convenient hours and over a much broader period.

SAVE ON SUNDAYS
The new night rates, both station-to-station and person-to-person, now also apply all day SUNDAYS . . . giving a discount rate from 7 P. M. Saturday to 4:30 A. M. Monday.

MANY DAYTIME REDUCTIONS
The new rates offer many important reductions over former DAY rates, either station-to-station or person-to-person. The reductions are especially pronounced over the greater distances.

REVEAL PLOT TO MURDER PREMIER

Pickpocket Frustrates Assassination Of Hirota in Tokyo

TOKYO. (AP)—A pickpocket unwittingly frustrated a plan to assassinate Premier Koki Hirota, authorities disclosed today.

The pickpocket was one link in a chain of extraordinary circumstances which delivered Koki Watanabe, 36, to the police.

Watanabe, arrested with dynamite, a razor-edged spearhead and petitions to five cabinet ministers in his possession, told police he had sought a chance for three days to kill the premier.

He said he had about 150 yen ($43) when he arrived in Tokyo from Fukushima prefecture, and had planned to spend part of it to bribe Hirota's chauffeur in order to get near enough to the premier to attack him.

But when he stopped to buy a bottle of milk, he told police, his pockets were picked clean. Penniless, he sat on a park bench to think over the situation.

Milk Made Him Ill
The milk, apparently, was contaminated. Watanabe soon became violently ill. A passing policeman offered to massage his stomach.

While performing this service, the patrolman discovered the dynamite and petitions concealed in Watanabe's clothing. He immediately took Watanabe to the police station, where, officials said, he confessed.

The Domei (Japanese) News Agency reported the arrest of an alleged accomplice of Watanabe at Wakamatsu, Fukushima prefecture.

Planned Hara-Kiri

The accomplice, Kagehi Matsumoto, was declared to have plotted with Watanabe to kill the premier in the hope of attracting public attention to agrarian disputes.

The petitions found on Watanabe asked cabinet members to care for the situation to arise from the assassination of the premier.

The spearhead, police said Watanabe told them, was to be used to commit hara-kiri after he had killed Hirota, whom he charged with ignoring the hardships of farmers.

Students Take Trip to Mines

Thirteen members of the mineralogy class at Santa Ana Junior class last week spent four days in Inyo and Kern counties studying places of mineralogical interest.

The group made Lone Pine its base, from which point they traveled to surrounding territory to study various points of interest. H. A. Scott instructor, accompanied the group.

They viewed a lead, zinc, silver, copper, and gold mine. They also saw sulphur fumaroles, hot springs, and an obsidian glass mountain. Also included in their trip was Red Rock canyon, an Icelandic spur mine, and a talk mine.

Those making the trip were Bertha Crane, Josephine Owen, Audrey Benson, Jean Kay, John Wallace, Jack Shanafelt, Norman Caldwell, Reed Sutherland, Harold Christensen, Hans Bergseter, Mac Mansfield, Robert Amundson and Josh Brady. Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Scott accompanied them.

Youth to Face Death Hearing

Stephen W. Lucas, 18, Long Beach, will have a preliminary hearing on negligent homicide charges Thursday afternoon in Huntington Beach justice court.

The hearing was set for yesterday but continued.

Lucas is charged with negligence in the traffic death of Virgil Childers and Alta Mae Millner in a crash in Huntington Beach two weeks ago. George Craco, 25, a passenger in the Childers car, is still under treatment for severe injuries sustained when the two autos collided.

POLICE REPORTS

The "noisy chickens and ducks" reported at 223 and 227 South Shelton street couldn't be found anywhere in that neighborhood, and officers couldn't find out the name of the woman who reported, so they decided they couldn't do anything about it.

Mrs. H. J. Powell, 2002 Valencia street, reported children on their way to school had been walking through her orchard, which was all right. But when they took tops off orchard heaters and threw them around, she objected. She asked officers to watch the place around schooltime.

Joseph O'Shea, 29, San Francisco, worked his luck overtime and came to grief. Officers talked to him at Fourth and Sycamore streets last night after he had been reported begging. He promised to leave town. Then an hour later they found him on East Fourth street. This time he landed in the county jail on vagrancy charges.

Ed Mendez, 27, 1823½ West First street, was jailed today on drunk driving charges. City court traffic fines: Speeding—G. F. Munez, $8; Howard A. McBride, $10; Lewis J. Smith, $10. Parking—V. C. Crowl, $1; M. T. Trate, $1. Boulevard stop—L. L. Warner, $2.

Can't Stay Away From Hospital

After taking a friend to the county hospital for a brief treatment, B. F. Dunham, 64, 830 North Barton street, landed right back at the hospital with the friend—after his car overturned. It started when Dunham drove M. D. Shaver, 74, 640 Riverine street, to the hospital. Shaver got fixed up and they started home.

In the 2000 block on North Flower street Dunham stepped on his brakes and the car overturned. Riding in an ambulance this time, Shaver and Dunham appeared again at the hospital. They were treated for minor cuts and bruises.

POST EDITORS START WORK

Editors of Tavern Post, Santa Ana Junior college literary magazine, today were editing contributions made for the December issue, according to Barbara Lee Berger, editor-in-chief.

Many poems and prose writings have been submitted by college students. The deadline for material to be considered for publication has been extended until Friday because of the addition of two prizes to the two already offered each year.

The Tavern Post is published each semester of the college year by the Tavern Tattlers, college literary society. Original work by the students is included.

Work on the cover and illustrations have been started by Jack Gardner, art editor. Linoleum cuts will be used.

SRA Case Load Passes 1000 Mark

With the case load now more than 1000 and the relief work greatly increased by the winter slack in agricultural employment, Orange county SRA today had a force nearly double the summer low of 23 workers.

Mrs. Catherine Hendley, social service supervisor, reported today she has an office force of approximately 40 persons.

don Bishop, business manager. Thomas H. Glenn is advisor.

TELLS THREATS TO DEMOCRACY

Sounding forth the evidences of a threatened democracy, Homer C. Chaney, director of the Orange county public forums, led last night's forum session at the high school auditorium.

His topic was "Are We Done With Democracy?" and after reciting a brief history of the growth of democracy in the United States, he asserted that it is in imminent danger because of the progress of attacks upon civil liberties found in some portions of the daily press, and intimidation by minority groups. Furthermore, he said, pressure groups force control, and there is too great a willingness to surrender personal liberties for economic security.

His talk, ending with the declaration that "we are faced with Fascism, Nazism and Communism," was followed by a discussion of possible solutions to the troubled state America is now in.

Chaney will lead the forum next Monday, with the topic, "What Is Sound Money?"

REVIEWING THE DONS

They have traveled nearly two miles — 2918 yards — from scrimmage by land and air in 10 games! They have averaged approximately 18 points per game to less than 4 for the opposition (3.7)!

They have grossed $9272.45 for the Southern California J. C. association football playoff with 10 games for an average gate of $927.25!

That is the 1936 history of Santa Ana's rampaging Dons, who carry the Eastern division colors Los Angeles' Western division champions at the Municipal bowl Friday night.

Such statistics automatically install A. J. (Bill) Cook's local lads at least a touchdown favorite over Glen Ackerman's metropolitan eleven in the grand finale here.

The Western division, slightly dominated by Los Angeles this fall, lacked the prestige of the Eastern division, and many observers were of the opinion Riverside, Chaffey or Pomona, as well as Santa Ana, could have finished near—if not on—the top.

This is not meant to infer Los Angeles lacks power. Far from it! The Cubs boast a stubborn forward wall that plays extremely hard — one rival coach called it "dirty football. With a Southerland title at stake, they probably will be playing over their heads.

Fullerton, the team Santa Ana defeated 13-0 with its reserves and without Quarterback Bill Greschner, upset Los Angeles, 7-0, in an early-season game in Los Angeles. Roy Friebe, the Fullerton coach, credited victory to inspired play on the part of his club, and praised the line strength of the Western conference foes. "They will cause Santa Ana trouble," he told Cook after the Don-Yellowjacket game at Fullerton.

The United Brethren defeated the Nazarenes of Santa Ana, 19 to 15, in the other game. First-round play will be completed Thursday night, with the South Methodists challenging the Advent Christians at 7:30, and the First Baptists playing the Church of the Brethren five at 8:30.

Now The All-America

ALAN GOULD, general sports editor of The Associated Press who picked his first all-America eleven a dozen years ago, is assembling the data on the 1936 candidates for football's hall of fame. Based on observation from the press corps, reports from his nationwide supporting staff of football experts and careful analysis of each candidate's play in every game, his AP all-America is recognized as the standard all over the football map. The 1936 all-America will appear in The Santa Ana Journal on Friday.

Starlets Play In Loyola League

RAY ARGUELLO HEADS GIRL SOFTBALL

Santa Ana, Westminster, Orange, Laguna, Brea, Long Beach Sought

Indications that the Starlets, girls' softball club sponsored by the Santa Ana Stars of the National Nightball league, will compete in two leagues next spring were made at a meeting of softball officials at Eddie Lane's cafe last night.

Manager George Lackaye of Santa Ana disclosed he already has made arrangements to enter Miss Lois Terry, his pitching sensation, and her teammates in a league at Loyola field, Los Angeles, as well as in the newly-formed Orange county loop.

Ray Arguello, sports editor of the Orange News, and one of the pioneers of the girls' sport in the county, was elected president of the Orange county league. He will not be directly connected, he said, with the Lionettes, club sponsored by the Orange Lions.

Under present plans, games will be played on Monday and Thursday nights, with a tentative personnel of Santa Ana, Orange, Laguna Beach, Westminster, Brea and Long Beach. Whittier and Fullerton would be added if the league decides to sponsor an eight-team membership, President Arguello said.

Manager Lackaye plans to call out his Starlets for training the first of the year. He already has signed, in addition to the famed Terry, Vivian Parham, Virginia Matthews, Melita Foster, Kazuo Oshiki, Ruth Lee, Grace Berger, Ruth Anderson, Marietta Jordan, Roberta Howell and Kate Dahm. Norman Lundak and Marjorie Pederson are other prospects.

Present at the first meeting were Arguello, representing the Orange Lionettes; Bob Fernandez, Tiernan Typists of Santa Ana; Lackaye, voting for Westminster; J. D. Balfour, Laguna Beach Lionettes; and Paul Wright, Santa Ana Journal.

A second meeting will be called in the near future.

BALL CHIEFS CONVENE

MONTREAL, (AP)—The baseball clubs gathered today for the annual meeting of the National Association of Professional Baseball Clubs, opening tomorrow, with representatives of every major league club on hand.

The lobby lobby whispering sessions began in earnest today with trade winds whistling around every corner. The chances are, however, that any deals concerning big league clubs won't become public until the major league meetings at New York next week.

About the only club not particularly interested in trading is the New York Yankees but the world champions would listen to offers of a good pitcher or second baseman. Hot rumors have been circulating for sometime concerning the Cardinals' illustrious Dizzy Dean and it seems likely he will be traded if some club can dig up enough in the way of cash and players to satisfy the Cards' demands.

Coleman Wins in Kudo's Absence

By BOB GUILD
Kimman Kudo, it seems, nearly was torn limb from limb in his Wednesday night match in Los Angeles. He could not show for his scheduled brawl with Baby Bob Coleman last night at the O. C. A. C.

And perhaps it was a good thing for the Joosh rasher that he couldn't. Coleman had his hands full beating Mitsui Yakahama, who substituted with a bit of jiu-jitsu and agile Japanese footery for his countryman.

They put on a scintillating bout. Coleman won through superior ring experience, and therein lay his entire margin of superiority.

Coleman loses first Fall number one went to the Nipponese with a couple of Japanese body locks and a bar hold, which came suddenly, in the midst of an enthusiastic Coleman rally. Baby Bob was fixing to slip over the finishing hold when the Oriental popped up with his dumper. Time was 15:46.

The second fall saw a deal of fancy leg work on the part of both boys, with all the edge going to Mitsui, until the payoff. Coleman came through when he caught one of his opponent's body slams on the shoulder, threw him into the air, and came down on top for the fall, in 14:12.

The rubber fall lasted quick, with Coleman winning in a wild flurry of cheering fans and twisted wrestlers, in about five minutes with a backward body press.

Sammy Stein showed up at the Orange county mat wars with a bagful of tricks and a hate for press row. Heading the Saint turnout are Capt.-elect Sammy Lockhart, towering guard, and Bill Milligan, Jim O'Connell, Harry Tway, Bill Musick and Milton Smith. Others in suit or Harry Ashen, Lincoln Bledsoe, Bob Clark, Russell Duffell, Jim Johnston, Gene Kadowaki, Mitsuo Nitta, Gene O'Campo, Joe Ortega, Ralph Pagenkopp, Pete Partida, Carl Smith, Harold Tucker, Jim Tway, Marvin Webb, Herschel Whitney, Elson Gabe, Nathan Levens, John Lindeman and Bill Talevich.

Danny Frias, popular midget, will serve as head manager. His assistant will be Bill Siefert.

A. A. U. FACES EXPLOSION

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—Plenty of explosive material for the A. A. U. convention was in prospect today as the national association prepared for the national meeting Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

Chances for the "bury-the-hatchet" proposal of President Avery Brundage of Chicago to get the nod appeared slim when Jack Rafferty, former vice president, declared there would be "an accounting."

"I am for any amicable settlement of our athletic problems which can be consummated with honor and without the stinging of public reproach," said Rafferty. "However, I do believe that the American public is entitled to full and complete answers to many questions which have been raised because of the alleged Olympic debacle."

"I do not propose to permit the A. A. U. as an organization to carry beyond the convention the stigma of guilty pride."

Reliable reports said Eleanor Jarrett, American swimmer, suspended because of alleged infraction of rules enroute to Berlin, would present her case at the convention.

Blanchard Beatty's Santa Ana Junior college team will play basketball against Long Beach's powerful Vikings of the Western division here a week from Friday night, the Don coach announced today.

The Eastern conference quarter-final complete practice schedule follows: Dec. 9—Long Beach here; Dec. 14—Compton there; Dec. 16—Compton here; Dec. 18—Long Beach there; Jan. 8—Pasadena there; Feb. 19—Pasadena here. Because of the double-round going into effect this season, Beatty has no open date for Phoenix Jay-see's barn-storming tour.

California Bears Battle Georgia Tech at Atlanta
BERKELEY, (AP)—After a week's football vacation, California's Bears were back in uniform today, and Coach L. B. (Stub) Allison promised light drills all this week in preparation for the Christmas day game at Atlanta with Georgia Tech.

There will be no practice next week, when final examinations will be in full swing, Allison said. He planned to take 33 players east, leaving Dec. 20.

Dr. William G. Donald said Ray Nordstrom, veteran right tackle who suffered a head injury Nov. 7 in the Southern California game, will be able to play.

SAINT CAGERS BEGIN DRILL WITH 26

Leuzinger of Inglewood And San Berdoo Fives Carded By Greene

Twenty-six basketball aspirants have answered Coach Reece Greene's practice call at Santa Ana High school.

The Saints, who went through their first warmup yesterday, will be paced through a drill in Andrews gymnasium between 7 and 9 o'clock tonight. Drills tomorrow and Thursday afternoons will be followed by a scrimmage with Coach Bill Cole's Tillers on the Tustin floor at 2:30 p. m. Friday.

The Walnut street preps really get down to business next week in practice skirmishes with San Bernardino of the Citrus Belt league here Monday afternoon and Leuzinger High of Inglewood here the following Friday. A sophomore "varsity" game will precede the San Bernardino Class A clash, Coach Greene said.

Headed the Saint turnout are Capt.-elect Sammy Lockhart, towering guard, and Bill Milligan, Jim O'Connell, Harry Tway, Bill Musick and Milton Smith. Others in suit or Harry Ashen, Lincoln Bledsoe, Bob Clark, Russell Duffell, Jim Johnston, Gene Kadowaki, Mitsuo Nitta, Gene O'Campo, Joe Ortega, Ralph Pagenkopp, Pete Partida, Carl Smith, Harold Tucker, Jim Tway, Marvin Webb, Herschel Whitney, Elson Gabe, Nathan Levens, John Lindeman and Bill Talevich.

MINNESOTA TOPS A. P. POLL

Louisiana State Is Second

NEW YORK, (AP)—Minnesota's place on top of the national football heap for 1936 is emphasized in the year's final Associated Press poll of sports writers.

The seventh ranking list gives the Gophers a margin of 23 points over Louisiana State. They were picked for the top by 25 of 35 experts who cast ballots. Nine of the other 10 listed L. S. U. first, while the other named Santa Clara's unbeaten and untied outfit.

Over the seven weeks span, the Gophers were picked for first place four times. After their defeat by Northwestern they dropped to second for three consecutive weeks but even then came up enough in the way of cash and players to satisfy the Cards' demands.

Washington, the Pacific Coast's Rose Bowl entry, also have been in the first 10 every week. Louisiana State's record shows a steady climb from 13th place to second.

The voting in the ranking poll, on the customary 10-9-8-7-6-5-4-3-2-1 basis, gave Minnesota 332 points this week, Louisiana 307 and Pitt 227. Alabama, which is reported to have the "inside track" for the Rose Bowl nomination, dropped from third to fourth with 218 while Washington was fifth with 216.

Other leaders were Santa Clara, 69; Pennsylvania, 34; Duke, 33; Yale, 22; Dartmouth, 13; Duquesne, 12; Fordham, 11; Texas Christian, 10; Tennessee, 8; Arkansas and Navy, 6 each, and Marquette, 4.

COUGARS DRILL FOR GONZAGA

PULLMAN, (AP)—Washington State's Cougars headed down the home stretch of football training today in preparation for Saturday's final game at Spokane against Gonzaga.

Scrimmage was abandoned in freezing weather. "We are concentrating on defense," said Coach O. E. (Baba) Hollingbery. "As far as training on any new offensive, that's out. We didn't have a chance to use what we had in the Washington game."

SPOKANE, (AP)—After several days' training in freezing weather, Coach Mike Pecarovich ordered an end to scrimmage today for his Gonzaga university football squad. Pecarovich expressed a fear scrimmage might bring injuries on the frozen field.

Levisky Favored In Los Angeles

LOS ANGELES, (AP)—Alvin (Bat.) Hunt, Giant Oklahoma Indian, goes on the warpath tonight in a 10-round bout with King Levisky, Chicago.

Although Hunt towers 6 feet 5½ inches and has a reach of 83 inches, pre-fight odds gave the smaller Levisky a 10-9 edge.

Turns Net Pro for Three Reasons

Fred Perry, British tennis sensation, who tells why he turned pro in an Associated Press interview by Robert Myers in The Journal today.

FRED PERRY EXPLAINS ALL Tells Why He Left England

By ROBERT MYERS
BEVERLY HILLS, (AP)—Mr. Frederick J. Perry, the tennis star, who has quit deny he turned professional, leaned back in easy fashion today and enumerated three reasons why he had deserted his native England to live in Southern California.

In order, and with emphasis on the first, he listed:

1. His wife, the beautiful Helen Vinson, who was Miss Helen Ruffs of Beaumont, Tex. before she became a motion picture celebrity.

2. A newly bought house and garden in Beverly Hills.

3. Ownership, partnership and promotorship in the reorganized Beverly Hills Tennis club.

"The sports world knows Perry and his tennis and his marriage to the lovely Miss Vinson, so it is the venture into the tennis club, a $100,000 proposition with a huge swimming pool and many other accommodations, that brings on this discussion."

Perry announced the new twist in his professional affairs at a luncheon, a private function attended by many notables of the screen. Including two of the original members.

SEATTLE, (AP)—Coach Jimmy Phelan, probably more interested than anybody else in the selection of an opponent for University of Washington in the Rose Bowl game, predicted today that the announcement would not be made before next Saturday or Monday.

Ray Eckmann, Washington's athletic director, left by plane yesterday for San Francisco and Los Angeles to begin preparations for the game. Phelan said he would follow tomorrow by train.

"I don't think the opposition will be announced before I arrive in Los Angeles Saturday to attend the Southern California-Notre Dame game and the Pacific Coast conference meeting," the coach said.

"It is probable the nomination will be placed before the conference as a whole before being made final."

The conference session opens Monday.

Making Lee Handley a free agent may be the tip-off on what Judge Landis will do in the Bob Feller case. Smart baseball men can't see how the commissioner can do anything but turn Bob loose. But if he does, certain clubs may be barred from the chase after his contract. If Feller isn't freed, some heavy guns may be loaded and fired by persons craving an opportunity to lambast the judge.

Teams to match next season: East: Cornell. . . Midwest: Wisconsin. . . South: Duke and Tennessee. . . Not to forget Pitt and Minnesota, always tough.

Three of the four Texas Christian backs who are likely to start against Santa Clara Dec. 12—Scott McCall, Hal McClure and Donkey Roberts—went to the frogs from the Fort Worth Masonic home. The fourth will be—you guessed it—Sammy Baugh (and his high hard one) in person. . . Note to Jimmie Nolen, Birmingham: It was Nebraska Bierman scouted.

Ohio State's basketball players will leg it from coast to coast in nine days this season. . . They play U. C. L. A. at Los Angeles Dec. 31 and New York U. here Jan. 9. . . Talking about Sammy Baugh, the Texas Christian sharpshooters, Jack Chevigny of Texas said: "You know just what he's going to do and can prepare for it, but he does it anyway." . . George Matsik, Duquesne halfback, who ran 73 yards for the touchdown that beat Pitt, never played a game of football until he enrolled with the Dukes. . . Mickey Cochrane, feeling great again, says he expects to do two-thirds of the catching for the Tigers next season.

LEO CALLAND WILL HONOR CHAMPIONS

Jaysee Fears Greschner Unable to Play Full Time Friday Night

Leo Calland, coach of San Diego State's champion Aztecs of the Southern California conference, will speak at a chamber of commerce banquet honoring Santa Ana Junior college's football titlists and their coaches, Bill Cook and Blanchard Beatty, here Dec. 8 or 15.

Rey Kennedy, president of the chamber, has appointed W. H. Spurgeon, Jr., head of a committee of service club representatives preparing for the banquet, which will be open to the public.

It is expected Calland, well-known in Santa Ana, will bring with him one or two members of his San Diego championship club, including Ben Slavin, who shone

The mother of Bob Holmes, first-string center, will be host to Santa Ana Junior college's football squad at a dinner in the basement of the Episcopal Church of the Messiah, Seventh and Bush streets, at 6 o'clock tonight. She announced the banquet provided the Dons won the conference championship.

at end with the Dons on their Southland title aggregation of '33. Final date and site of the banquet will be selected when Chairman Spurgeon calls his committee together this week. Cooperating with him are Calvin Flint, dean of the junior college; Vic Rowland, president of the Associated Students; George Baker, Rolla Hays, Jr. and John Lutz.

GRESHNER LOST TO DONS HERE FRIDAY?
Unless he shows improvement in drill today and tomorrow, Quarterback Bill Greschner may be kept on the sidelines in Santa Ana's Southland playoff with Los Angeles here Friday night, Coach Cook indicated today.

"That groin injury is still bothering him, and it is doubtful whether Bill will be of any service to us. He certainly was not himself in drill yesterday," Cook said.

IRISH RENEW OLD RIVALRY WITH TROY
By JOE PETRITZ
News Director, Notre Dame

Selection of Capt. John Lauter, Notre Dame left guard, on nearly every all-America eleven named to date, assures the huge crowd which will turn out to see the Irish play Southern California at the Los Angeles coliseum Saturday of a continuance of one unique feature which has characterized the series.

The rivalry itself is unique in that it is the oldest between a Pacific coast university and a school from any other part of the country. It started in 1926 and has continued without a break through 10 seasons.

30,000 TICKETS SOLD
LOS ANGELES, (AP)—Thirty thousand fans already have bought tickets for the Notre Dame game Saturday, Graduate Manager Arnold Eddy of Southern California, reported today.

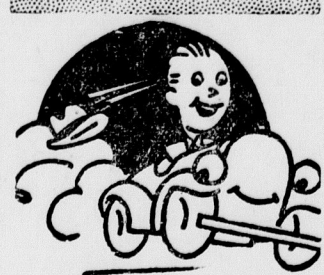

With Notre Dame installed as a 2-1 favorite in local football circles, Coach Howard Jones gave his Trojans a flock of new plays and hoped for the best.

It is the only series of its age in which at least one all-America star has played every year. The Trojans have had 10 all-Americans in 10 years, two of them repeating, and Notre Dame has had 12, including Lauter, with three of them having been selected two years in a row.

That Southern California this year has at least two players of all-American proportions is the opinion of Irish scouts who watched the 7-all tie with U. C. L. A. Dave Davis, sensational senior quarterback and Capt. Gil Kuhn, center, in the opinion of the Notre Dame espionage department, are the best men for their positions the Irish

Brick Dust

Here and There With
The Journal's
Rambling County Editor
By T. N. (BRICK) GAINES

DIRECTORY Sam Dawson, who puts names in things in his little books, gave me a preview of his latest brainchild yesterday at Newport.

Sam has covered a little more territory in his latest effort, which is a yacht register listing every boat in the harbor, its owner, size (of the boat, not the owner) and everything else he could think of that'd be of interest to yachtsmen. After considerable nagging, Sam decided he'd give me a copy of his fine new book, which goes to press about the middle of this month. If it hadn't been for Robbie Robinson, noted yachtsman and dock-jumper-offer, and Harbor-master Tommy Bouchee, I don't think Sam would have agreed to part with one of his publications, but that pair sold him on the idea that I'd like to know about yachts, as I have a navy of my own to worry about now.

But, no foolin', Sam's directory's going to be a honey!

And now, a day late, we'll enjoy Editor Verner Beck's weekly sermon for Chills from his Coast-line Dispatch at San Juan Capistrano. Sounding a warning note, or the apparent downfall and decay of American manhood, and their descent to pink ribbons on night apparel, Editor Beck preaches thusly:

"Little Chills, when you grow up, if you have been nice and read in your schoolbooks and counted your blessings one by one, someday you will know that two and two is four. You ought to try to remember not to forget this because sometimes it doesn't make sense. But if two and two is four, then red ought to be red, and blue ought to be blue, but sometimes when folks are blue they see red. But if you are blue, then be blue, and if you are red, don't let your neighbors know it, and never be yellow. If you try to change colors or make two and two something that isn't four, beware, Chills, beware, because once there was a woman who the neighbors said was stubborn as a mule. When she went out to play bridge she told her partner how to play, and she made her husband who is supposed to be her best friend, stay home and knit and hemstitch, and wash dishes and clothes and the bathtub. Once upon a time a bird with long legs and no judgment, left a nice little baby at their house, and this sort of broke up the stubborn lady's program because she had to stay home and wash some of the things the husband refused to wash. But one thing she wouldn't do was to walk around the house at night with the baby when it felt the yowls coming on. She made her nice little pansy husband do the walking. One night, Chills, the baby was not shut up, no matter how fast the man walked in his hand-embroidered nightgown or how hard he jiggled the off-spring. Finally the stubborn old kibitzer wife made her nice husband put pink baby ribbons all over his nightgown, mind you, Chills, just to fool that poor little baby and make it think its mama was having a change of heart. But the instant that little baby discovered the fake (and it didn't take long either), my goodness, how it did raise the roof. Right then and there it got awful mad at both its mama and papa, because it really was hungry, and it grew up to be a public enemy and followed the undertakers' trade, and every time it saw a married man or a married woman it would say to them, 'I hope you drop over sometime.' That's all it would say, and believe it or not, Chills, eventually every one of them did drop over, and everybody was afraid to near the undertaker because they knew he would get them in the end, and thoughts of a cold slab were piquant to them. So, little Chills, never, never sail under false colors. If you are legally privileged to have pink ribbons in your nightgown, have them there, but for goodness sake if you aren't, don't wear 'em, because you aren't fooling anybody but yourself, and what would you think, and what would you do, if you saw some pink ribbons and you were all ready to quit yowling and you discovered it was a fake. Maybe you would grow up to be an undertaker too, and go about muttering to all married men and women you met, 'I hope you drop over sometime.' Think it over, Chills, if you still believe two and two makes something else."

PETITIONERS SEEK NEW CITY HALL FOR NEWPORT-BALBOA

BOARD ASKED TO REPLACE
STRUCTURE

200 Residents Seek New Building in Place of
40-Year-Old Hall

NEWPORT-BALBOA.—A new city hall shall reflect its modern architectural lines in the waters of Newport Bay in the very near future if the wishes of many Newport-Balboa citizens are acted upon.

Meeting in its 40-year-old former schoolhouse building, the city council last night received a petition signed by more than 200 harbor district taxpayers urging that a new and modern structure be erected in a central convenient location.

The present city hall on the ocean front is ancient, decrepit and out of keeping, the petitioners insisted, with the new building and advancing ideas of the all-year around summer city encircling the fastest growing and finest yacht harbor on the Pacific coast.

SHOOT MOVIES
AT BEACH

HUNTINGTON BEACH.—Huntington Beach was ready to go Hollywood today.

Citizens of this seaside town have been asked to appear in scenes of a new Selznick International Pictures film, "A Star Is Born," featuring Frederick March, Janet Gaynor and Adolph Menjou, the scene to be shot on the Huntington Beach sands.

In the role of casting director appeared William Gallene, executive secretary of the chamber of commerce, who said he had completed all arrangements with Mason Litson, location manager of the motion picture company, and that his office would be the clearing house for cinema stars of Huntington Beach.

Sympathies were being extended Denny by members of the board of directors of the Huntington Beach Chamber of Commerce of which he is a director.

Carlson to Be Tustin Speaker

TUSTIN.—Oliver Carlson will speak at the weekly public forum tonight on "Moulding Public Opinion." The public is invited to attend the lecture in the high school auditorium at 7:30 o'clock.

REVERSE H. B.
RULING ON CANNERY

NEWPORT-BALBOA.—Permit to build the contested warehouse adjoining the cannery plant recently damaged by fire was granted Manager Grayby of the Italian Food Products company by the city council at its meeting last night, thereby reversing the informal ruling of the city planning commission by whom the matter was first reviewed.

Nothing in the non-conforming industries ordinance, according to the council's findings, denies the cannery freedom in erecting the new storage space as shown on plans and specifications submitted to A. M. Nelson, building inspector. Inspector Nelson was instructed to issue the permit.

The building, however, may not be used as part of the cannery, or to increase the capacity of the plant, it was agreed.

Further to elucidate the provisions of the new ordinance, adopted last January with the expressed purpose of promoting and protecting the healthful and recreational features of Newport Bay, the council asked Roland Thompson, city attorney, to meet with the city planning commission Dec. 9.

TUSTIN CLASS MEETING SET

TUSTIN.—Adult education classes will meet tonight for the first time since organization last Tuesday.

Twenty-five men and women enrolled last week for a course under direction of Orville Northrup. The course is still open to those interested, it was announced.

The women's night gym class, under supervision of Miss Stella Yocum, meet each Monday night in the high school gymnasium. Competitive basketball games with Garden Grove and Laguna Beach classes are planned.

CHANGE CENTER
MEETING DATE

GARDEN GROVE.—The next meeting of the Garden Grove Farm center has been set ahead a week and will be held in the woman's Civic clubhouse Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock in place of Dec. 10 because of the National and state convention at Pasadena that week.

Walter Schmid, president of the local center, has announced there will be five door prizes which will be tickets for the barbecue to be held at the convention on Dec. 9. It is planned to have an out-of-town speaker, he said.

Slate Special
Church Meeting

ORANGE.—A special congregational meeting of the First Presbyterian church has been called for Wednesday night for action upon a recommendation from the session of the church, concerning repairs and disposition of the manse. The pastor, Dr. Robert B. McAdams, and family moved the latter part of the week to more suitable quarters at 140 North Waverly street, and it will be decided Wednesday night whether the church-owned manse on North Glassell street will be sold or rented.

San Juan Party
Back From East

SAN JUAN CAPISTRANO.—Mrs. Paul H. Esslinger and party of relatives arrived home from a trip to Detroit where three new cars were purchased and driven back by members of the party.

Accompanying Mrs. Esslinger was an aunt, Mrs. E. Varenhorst of Quincy, Ill.; a brother-in-law, Dr. Jones and his mother and sister, Mrs. Dora Steiner, of Lorraine, Ill.

Mrs. Esslinger visited the Carlsbad caverns and met R. W. Quackenbush and party from Dana Point, who were also on a sight-seeing tour. Lowell Lashbrook, brother-in-law of Dr. Esslinger, will arrive here soon with another car.

Pair Return
From Arizona

MIDWAY CITY.—Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Marshall and son, Jimmie, returned Saturday from a week's visit with relatives at Phoenix, and Tempe, Ariz. On Thursday Marshall and Jimmie attended the annual Thanksgiving rodeo at Chandler.

DOT AND DAN IN SANTALAND

MUTT NEW DEAL STARTS
Pups In Pound Are Pampered
PAY $25,000
FOR GROVE
WALNUTS

LAGUNA BEACH.—A new deal for mutts and pups of Laguna Beach goes into effect officially today, although the brand new local branch of the county dog pound has harbored a few informal guests up until now.

Members of the Laguna Beach Humane society have announced that every effort will be made to find homes for the dogs which are found wandering around on the streets.

Fred Walters officially takes over his new duties as keeper of the pound and animal shelter today, although he really has been working at the job for more than a week. Walters will be expected to cooperate with the Humane society in providing proper treatment for all lost, strayed and unwanted animals placed in his care.

Owners of lost dogs may not reclaim them after 72 hours have passed since their admission to the pound. If a new home is found for a dog or cat it may be transferred to the new owners after 72 hours have passed and the original owner may not reclaim the animal then.

The job of looking after the animals has been shifted to Walters from the Humane society and the police department. He was selected for the job by the city council.

ORANGE GUILD
MEETS DEC. 10

ORANGE.—Due to the preaching mission which is being held each evening this week at the Methodist church, a meeting of the Wesleyan Service guild of that church, scheduled for Thursday night, has been postponed until Dec. 10.

The group will convene in the home of Jewel Gullede, North Harwood street. A Christmas party will feature the meeting, it was announced today by Mrs. Helen Archibald, president.

Coltrane Back
From Journey

ORANGE.—Police Officer G. W. Coltrane and Mrs. Coltrane, Mrs. Fred Walters, Long Beach, mother of Mrs. Coltrane, and Miss Virginia Eckley, a niece, returned Monday from an automobile trip during which they traveled more than 7000 miles.

Coltrane reported that snow, sleet and mud were encountered on the trip.

Susan Morrison works in the dreary old Suthwick wholesale dealer in crockery. Chester Hadley, young traveling salesman for the confectionery store, is in love with her, but too poor to marry her. Then Suthwick, a well-to-do widower of 45, unexpectedly proposed to her. She can give him an answer, however, she learns that a great-uncle, Cyrus Morrison, whom she has never seen, has died and left her his entire estate. She journeys to the small town where he made his home and registers at the hotel. A group of lobby loungers, seeing her name, refer to her as the "swamp heiress" and say "it's a shame."

CHAPTER IV

Mrs. Ames gazed at the register and read aloud, "Miss Susan Morrison, New York City."

"Tut-tut!" said Doc Waldo, the town veterinarian, shaking his head.

"How could Cyrus Morrison have been such a fool?" Mrs. Ames said plaintively.

"Touch of senility, I guess," said Sheriff Dave Johnson. "He was always keen smart up to his last sickness. But, of course, when Eben Bosdick starts out to get something."

"Sh, Dave!" Mrs. Ames warned, looking about the lobby apprehensively. "You know you can't say a word about him but what his nephew hears of it and runs to him, and it's his poor business policy to have Eben nod on a person."

"Doc Waldo nodded in agreement, and looked out at the street, where Susan could be seen heading for the office of Lawyer Peaslee."

"She's a pretty little thing," Doc said.

"Before she goes back to New York, by the great Lord Harry, I'm going to tell her about Bosdick!" Johnson declared. "I'll tell her what a high-handed, cheating old—"

"Ahem . . . Hello, Bert!" Mrs. Ames called out sharply, giving the sheriff's elbow a nudge as Bert Bosdick, nephew of old Eben, came into the lobby.

"Lo, Mrs. Ames. Give me some cigarettes."

Bert came over to the desk, nodded to the others, took his cigarettes, and then looked at the register. They watched him slyly. His weak face spread into a silly grin.

"Morrison? Say—is she the swamp heiress, I wonder?"

"Yep," Doc Waldo replied. "Haw! That's a hot one. Wait 'till I tell Uncle Eben!"

cooperate with the Humane society in providing proper treatment for all lost, strayed and unwanted animals placed in his care.

Owners of lost dogs may not reclaim them after 72 hours have passed since their admission to the pound. If a new home is found for a dog or cat it may be transferred to the new owners after 72 hours have passed and the original owner may not reclaim the animal then.

The job of looking after the animals has been shifted to Walters from the Humane society and the police department. He was selected for the job by the city council.

ORANGE.—Due to the preaching mission which is being held each evening this week at the Methodist church, a meeting of the Wesleyan Service guild of that church, scheduled for Thursday night, has been postponed until Dec. 10.

The group will convene in the home of Jewel Gullede, North Harwood street. A Christmas party will feature the meeting, it was announced today by Mrs. Helen Archibald, president.

Week-End in Cabin

MIDWAY CITY.—John Pryor and his houseguest, Luke Eals, Petaluma, spent Friday at Camp Baldy as guests of Jean Neil, Sunset Beach. Other guests included Jean Paxton, Santa Ana, and David Wetlin, Jr., Orange.

ORANGE.—When the annual meeting of the board of directors of the Orange Savings bank is held Jan. 13, F. M. Gulick, cashier of the bank, will submit his resignation, it was announced Monday. He has served the bank for 23 years.

The position is scheduled to be filled by Willard Smith, vice president of the First National bank, Orange. Gulick plans to devote his time to private business and lead a semi-retired life.

VISIT IN RIVERSIDE

SILVER ACRES.—Mr. and Mrs. Clark Gilham and daughters, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Whitaker, recently visited in Riverside as guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Whitaker.

Bert hurried out.

"The dang, sneakin' little rat!" Johnson growled.

Lawyer Oscar Peaslee had his heels comfortably resting on the ancient desk, when the bell above his door jangled to announce a visitor.

He twisted his head to see who it was. Instantly his feet came down, and he arose.

"Mr. Peaslee?" said Susan. "Yes, Miss."

"I wired you that I was coming."

"Miss Morrison?" The lawyer beamed. "Well, well, how'd you get here so quick? Didn't expect you 'til tomorrow!"

"He pulled a chair forward, and Susan sat down."

"I was wondering," she said cheerfully, "how you ever found my address."

"Well, now, you got Mrs. Tucker, your uncle's housekeeper, to thank for that. You wrote to your uncle once on Suthwick Crockery stationery. She read his letters to him, kept your address."

"Sh, Dave!" Mrs. Ames warned, looking about the lobby apprehensively. "You know you can't say a word about him but what his nephew hears of it and runs to him, and it's his poor business policy to have Eben nod on a person."

"Doc Waldo nodded in agreement, and looked out at the street, where Susan could be seen heading for the office of Lawyer Peaslee."

GARDEN GROVE.—Walnut growers in this district have received almost $25,000 for a portion of this year's crop, Wayne Holt, secretary of the Garden Grove Walnut Growers' association, announced today. Growers received checks in the mail today in partial payment for their crop, he said.

Work in the cracking plant, which has been in operation since the middle of October, was completed today. Approximately 55 women have been employed in the cracking room and have received $3000 in pay checks.

Holt reports the quality of nuts has been poor this year due to a higher per cent of worms than last year. The price per pound is slightly higher than last year, but still the growers will not receive more money on account of culls, he said.

AUTHOR WILL COMMENCE TALKS

Frances Furr, Author of Treatise, Scheduled For KVOE Series

Frances Furr, author of "Dynamic Affirmations," lecturer and teacher of psychology and metaphysics, will be heard in the first of a series of broadcasts from KVOE tomorrow morning at 8:45, comprising inspirational and practical lessons on happy and successful living, based upon the principles of psychology and metaphysics.

"That Inferiority Complex and How to Get Rid of It," is the topic of the first discussion, of interest to many who recognize the fact that their personality is deficient in "something" they need. Tomorrow morning's broadcast will define the "complex," explain its origin, and suggest how it may be corrected.

Other topics in this interesting series of broadcasts, to be scheduled Wednesday mornings at 8:45, include "An Analysis of Yourself," "The Sex Instinct and Its Influences on One's Health, Happiness and Success," "Your Environment and How to Meet It Successfully," "Your Memory and How to Develop It," "Your Pears and How to Get Rid of Them," "Your Will Power and How to Strengthen It," "Your Job and How to Attract a Better One," and many others.

Agricultural Head In Radio Talks

Authoritative information on agricultural subjects of particular interest to Orange county growers will be given by D. W. Tubbs, agricultural commissioner for Orange county, during the first of a series of broadcasts to be made in cooperation with the California state department of agriculture tomorrow afternoon at 12:15 from KVOE. Daily except Sunday 5-minute broadcasts will be made at the same hour and the Wednesday 15-minute broadcasts will be made by Commissioner Tubbs.

Tomorrow's broadcast will concern, in particular, the fruit growers and farmers convention in Bakersfield Dec. 14 and 15, and a brief discussion of "Pepper Weevil Control in Orange County."

London's Crystal Palace Burns

LONDON, (AP)—Historic Crystal Palace, one of London's intimate links with a by-gone day, lay today in smoldering ruins.

A spectacular fire last night destroyed the great mirrored edifice which was built at a cost of $5,750,000 in 1851—an amusement center for millions since the days of Queen Victoria. No lives were lost but unestimated damage was done.

The Duke of Kent, in hip boots and wireman's helmet, was among hundreds of thousands who collected to watch London's fire brigade battle the flames.

Shorthand Topic Of Broadcast

"Why Shorthand?" is the topic of this evening's adult education broadcast from KVOE at 5:30, to be made by Miss Eleanor Ellis, teacher of shorthand and bookkeeping in the adult education department, Santa Ana schools.

Interesting facts about the origin of shorthand with its historical background, where and why it was developed, will be given by Miss Ellis. She will explain also the modern shorthand and tell of various speed records established by its use.

Hit Parade from KVOE at 7 p. m.

Another hit parade, in the series scheduled every Tuesday night on KVOE at 7 o'clock under the title of "Top Tunes of the Day," will review the nation's favorite dance rhythms in the reverse order of preference, tonight at that hour.

Winners this week are "In the Chapel in the Moonlight," "The Way You Look Tonight" and "Who Loves You."

Vic Meyers and the studio orchestra will play.

Legal Status of Chiropractic Told

A special message will be delivered during this evening's "Keep Smiling" broadcast from KVOE at 6:15, reiterating the findings of a superior court of California in the "Superior Judge John J. VanNostand decision," outlining and defining the science of chiropractic as practiced in the state of California.

This document will give the legal viewpoint of chiropractic and how it is recognized.

Sardine Fisher Strike Settled

SAN PEDRO, (AP)—San Pedro's 2000 sardine fishermen are expected to go back to work this week after a month-long strike.

With an agreement already reached with the canneries, the Deep Sea and Purse Seine Fishermen's union reported today the Italian Fishermen's association is joining its membership.

NEW TWIN BILL NOW AT STATE

Topped by a first-run picture, "Murder With Pictures," the double bill opening tonight at the State theater also includes the feature film, "Law in Her Hands," and a novelty short, "Alpine Yodeler."

The solution of a perplexing crime through a photograph forms the basis of the plot of "Murder With Pictures." An attorney is slain as he talks to reporters and newspaper photographers, a beautiful girl is accused of the slaying, and one of the photographers, in love with the girl, sets out to solve the slaying to clear the girl.

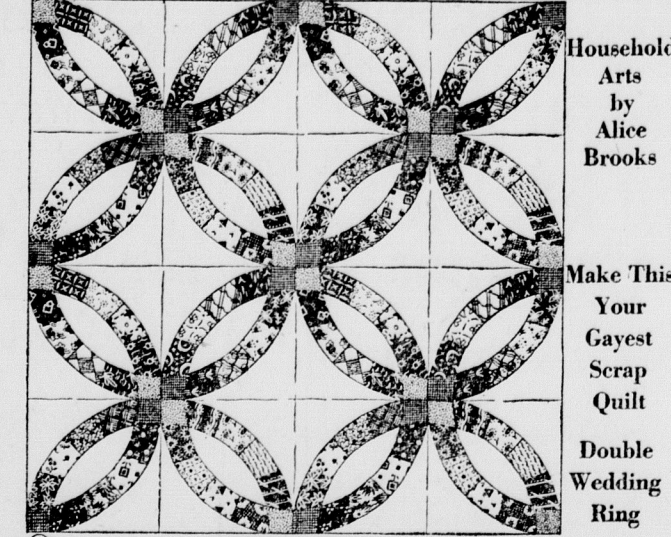

In the cast are Lew Ayres, Gail Patrick, Joyce Compton, Paul Kelly, Onslow Stevens, Ernest Cossart and Benny Baker.

Margaret Lindsay, Glenda Farrell, Warren Hull and Lyle Talbot are featured in "The Law in Her Hands," with Eddie Acuff, Dick Purcell and Al Shea, in principal supporting roles.

The story is that of a woman criminal lawyer who, after having defended criminals, breaks the back of her city's deadliest gang because the gang's chief had her kidnaped when she refused to handle his case.

Frank and William Easton of New Hampton, Mo., who believe they are the oldest twins in the state, celebrated their 84th birthday recently.

Wedding Ring Motif an Old Favorite

Household Arts by Alice Brooks

Make This Your Gayest Scrap Quilt Double Wedding Ring

"Happy is the Bride," the bride-to-be, or bride of Yesteryear who pieces this quilt—an old-time favorite. Its double wedding-ring motif is one to make you love, honor and cherish it—always! A most economical pattern too, for it's loveliest when pieced of scraps, just "heiter-skelter." The variety of the materials makes the work most fascinating—you'll find yourself making rapid progress with this—your Heirloom-to-be! In pattern 5620 you will find the Block Chart, an illustration of the finished block in actual size, showing contrasting fabrics; accurately drawn pattern pieces; an illustration of the entire quilt; three color schemes; step-by-step directions for making the quilt, and exact yardage requirements.

To obtain this pattern send 10 cents in stamps or coin (coin preferred) to The Journal, Household Arts Dept., 117 E. Fifth street. Be sure to write plainly your name, address and pattern number.

TRAPS KIDNAP CULPRIT TO FREE MATE

NEW YORK, (AP)—The Daily News in a copyright story today said Honey Hamilton, former Broadway showgirl, had ended a five-year quest in New York's underworld for information to clear her husband, Nicholas Rutigliano, of kidnap charges.

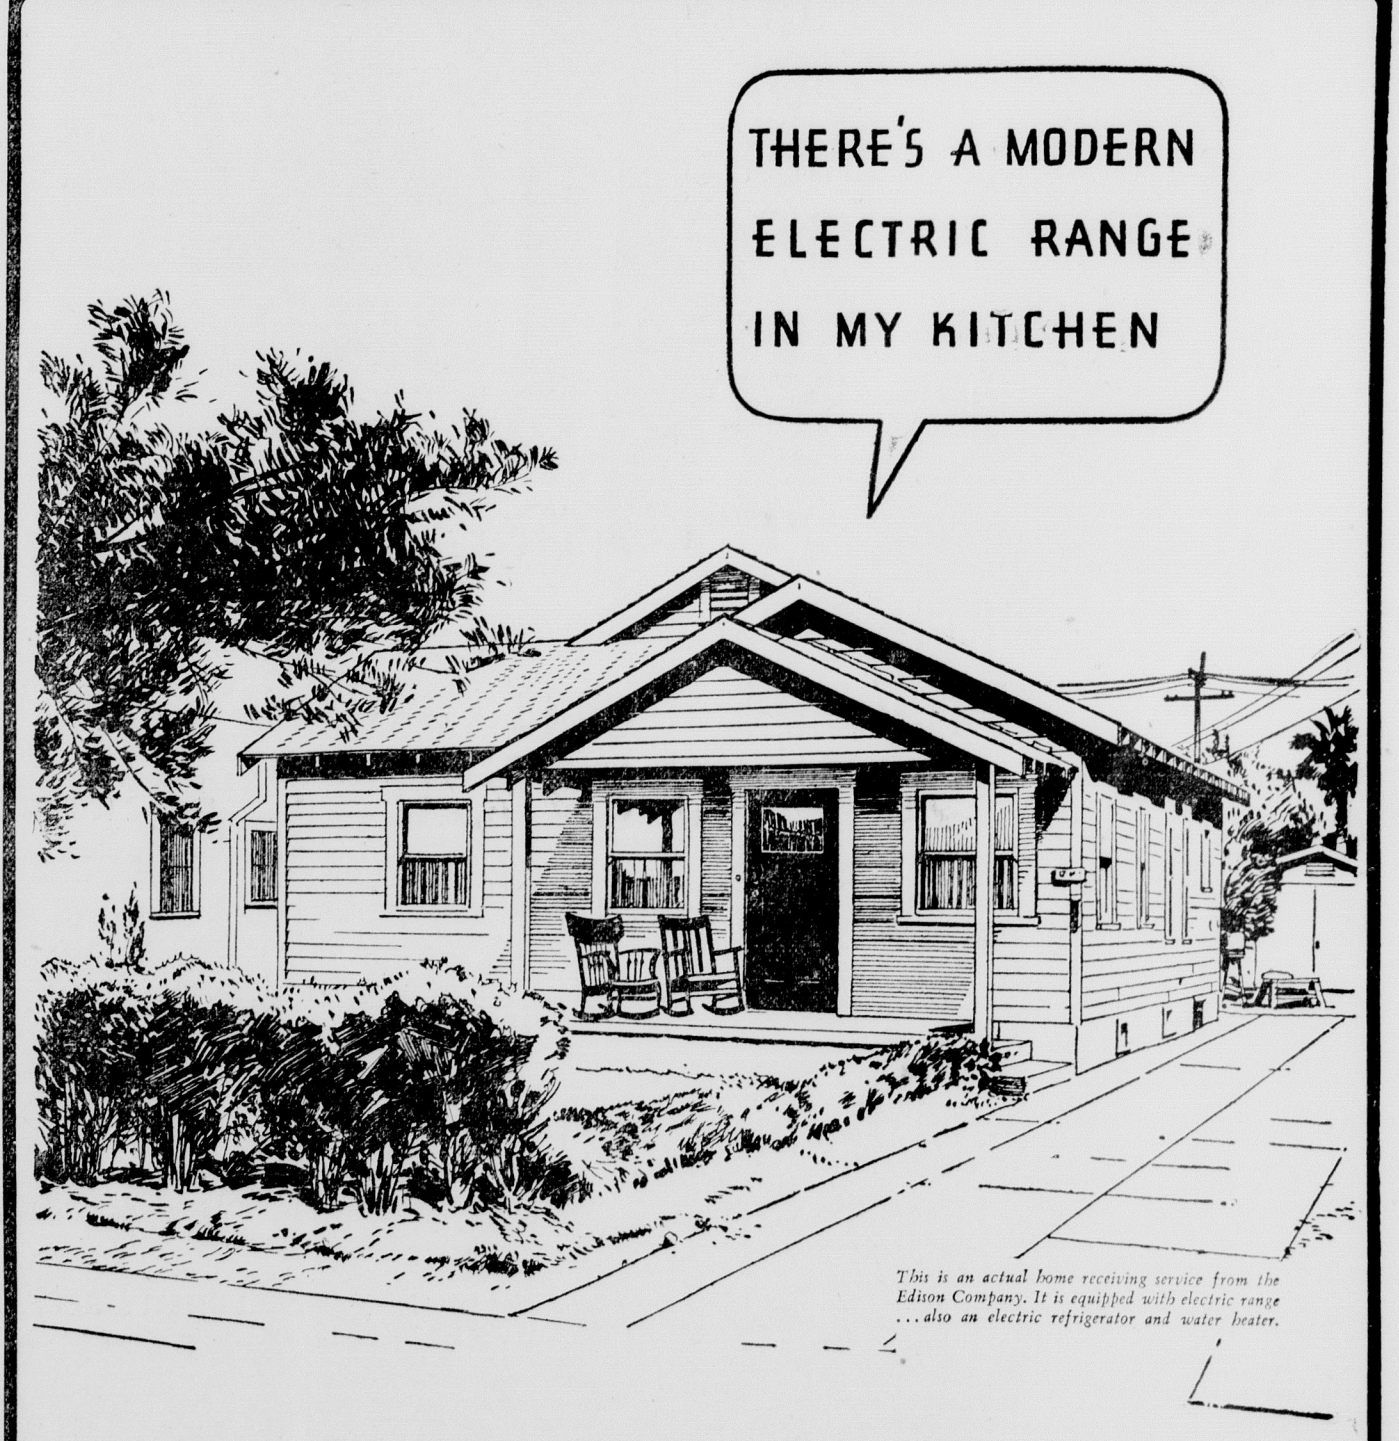

Rutigliano, alias Nick Green, 52, was given 60 years along with three others in October, 1931, upon their conviction in the abduction of Charles Rosenthal, wealthy young curb broker.

In the office of Governor Lehman, the News said, "she (Mrs. Rutigliano) filed an appeal for the release of her husband... alleging she had found the real culprit and caused his indictment."

"Information she gathered during countless nights in dens and dives of the city's underworld was contained in a petition presented to the governor."

"It disclosed," the paper stated, "that her ceaseless search, carried on despite warnings, threats and beatings, had resulted in the secret indictment" of another man, "for the crime for which her husband was convicted."

Rosenthal was lured to an apartment and held prisoner from Aug. 11 to 28, 1931. He was released after payment of $50,000 ransom.

Every Home can afford an ELECTRIC RANGE

● Take a good look at the home illustrated above. It is an actual home in Southern California...built no doubt with a limited budget. ● Yet this home is equipped with a modern electric range. It enjoys the benefits of modern cooking methods... methods as modern as those used in the White House at Washington. ● It buys electricity at a low domestic wholesale rate... as do 30,000 other homes with electric ranges in Edison territory. Surely, if electrical cooking is economical for this home, it is economical for yours, too.

WALNUT MEN DEMAND MORE POWER ON FARM BUREAU BOARD

A. D. SMILEY IS LEADING MOVEMENT

Plan Supported By Ten
Other Counties In
Southland

A movement to give Orange county's second major crop—walnuts—greater representation on the state board of directors of the California Farm Bureau federation will open Saturday in a session of the resolutions committee of the State Farm bureau convention at Pasadena.

Started by interests in this county, the plan has the backing of 10 other California county Farm bureaus which seek a separate department and director for walnuts. Present representation is through the field crops department.

Smiley Leads Move

If the plan survives sessions of the resolutions committee Saturday and Monday, it will be reported on the floor of the convention Tuesday for a vote.

A. D. Smiley of Garden Grove, chairman of the regional walnut department of Southern California, led the movement, and has secured endorsements from Merced, Los Angeles, San Diego, Ventura, Riverside, Santa Barbara, Lake, Tulare, Contra Costa and Butte counties.

Following the state convention Dec. 5 to 8, Pasadena will be the scene of the National Farm bureau convention, with Henry Wallace, secretary of agriculture, and other national leaders scheduled to speak.

Await Wallace Talk

Farmers are looking forward to Wednesday, Dec. 9, and Secretary Wallace's speech before a throng of 10,000 at a Spanish barbecue for a clue to the department of agriculture's policy during President Roosevelt's second administration.

Other important men in agriculture who are on the convention program are H. R. Tolley, administrator of AAA; Chester C. Davis, member of the federal reserve board and former administrator of AAA; Clifford Gregory, member of the president's special commission to investigate cooperatives in Europe; Dr. W. I. Myers, governor of the farm credit administration; and Dr. Morris L. Cowie, administrator of the rural electrification administration.

Pierce to Lead

The convention also will be the occasion for the western regional conference of extension service directors, bringing men from all the Western states.

Frank Pierce of Santa Ana, director of music for the convention, will lead a farm chorus of 1000 voices, including 70 from Orange county, in musical programs at the convention sessions.

HOLIDAY PARTY FOR CHURCH

Turkeys of all sizes and descriptions will change hands at a holiday party to be held tomorrow night at the American Legion hall. The parish members of the Church of St. Anne, and the Rev. Thomas Butler, pastor, are sponsoring the event, which is open to the public.

Bridge and five hundred will be the featured games, with turkeys to be awarded to the winners in each group. Refreshments will be served at conclusion of play.

Committee members assisting at the event, the proceeds of which will go to the church Christmas fund, include Mrs. Tony Osterkamp, Mrs. Charles Borchard, Mrs. Earl Stigers, Mrs. John Marling, Mrs. Henry Schmidt, Mrs. E. Van-easteren, Mrs. Frank Sheeler, Mrs. J. Ogden Markel, Mrs. E. P. Dyche, Tony Barrios, Herb Huleskamp, John Marling, Charles Webb, Jr., Pete Halman, Antone DeSutter, Charles Vermeulen, Earl Cunningham, Frank Catherina, Miss Elizabeth Borchard, Miss Jean Gaspar, Miss Freda Wagner and Miss Rose Columbi.

ARMSTRONG WARNS CITRUS GROWERS OF RED SCALE

(Editor's Note: Orange county's prosperity is founded upon its farming, particularly its citrus industry. The Valencia orange harvest has just closed, and for this reason The Journal is publishing a series of articles based on the report of the California Fruit Growers exchange. This fourth article follows.)

Despite lower losses from insect pests this year, largely due to crop and climatic conditions, citrus growers are faced with an ever increasing menace from red scale, Paul S. Armstrong, general manager of the California Fruit Growers Exchange, told the organization in his annual report. Portions of his report follow:

"Losses from insect pests during the season, although considerable, were the least for several years. The major factors influencing insect severity, such as weather, natural enemies, and in the case of lemons, crop conditions, tended for the most part to check extreme insect development. Furthermore, the grower's campaign of control was particularly extensive and thorough.

Thrips on Lemons

"Black scale, with the exception of a few localities, was greatly improved over a year ago. Red scale, both on lemons and on oranges, was under good control until summer, but since then there has been a rapid build-up. Thrips-marked oranges were at a minimum, but in southern interior areas the pest is becoming serious on lemons. In central California the citricola scale showed a marked increase. Red spider alone was abnormally severe.

"It is becoming increasingly apparent that red scale and red spider are the most destructive and difficult of control of California's citrus pests. Both the federal government and the citrus experiment station are investigating these insects, but as yet without promising results. The increasing cost of red scale control has stimulated greater interest in the formation of cooperative pest control organizations in the hope of improving efficiency and reducing the burden of control efforts.

Control Costly

"Winter and spring fumigation for scale has been on the increase and spraying with oil widespread. Sulfur dust also showed a gain over previous years. Upwards of 55,000 acres were fumigated during the season, approximately 135,000 acres sprayed, and 80,000 acres dusted. The total cost exceeded $4,500,000.

"Red scale was discovered last year for the first time in citrus orchards in the Salt River valley of Arizona. The pest control bureau cooperated with Arizona citrus growers and the state entomologist in establishing an eradication campaign by fumigation.

Hawaiian Shipments

"Approximately 68,000 boxes of oranges, lemons, and grapefruit destined for Hawaii were fumigated by this bureau last season in compliance with quarantine requirements. This work has been in operation six years, with only one rejection.

"Winter shipments to Australia also were fumigated. Cooperation with the sales department in supervising the processing of fruit destined for sale in Florida was continued. Because of the increase in shipments abroad, a quarantine index was prepared which sets forth the citrus quarantine requirements of practically all countries of the world.

"The exchange monthly pest control circular was continued throughout the year and widely distributed."

CHILI PUT KICK IN FIRST LOCAL BOOTLEG LIQUOR

(Editor's Note: Federal Writers' project workers, under Ted N. Burrell, Orange county editor, are compiling an Orange county guide. From some of the older histories and documents many odd, interesting and previously unpublished facts are unearthed. Here is one of a series of such stories to be printed from time to time exclusively in The Santa Ana Journal.)

By TED N. BURRELL

While not bothered with local option or prohibition, early day settlers in Orange county did have their troubles with bootleggers and brandy. Although they were probably known in those days by other names. However, the grief they brought to the law abiding citizenry in this section of the country in the latter part of the eighteenth century was just as potent as that of a later day variety.

The first bootlegger in what is now Orange county made his appearance hereabouts shortly before 1798 and his advent was brought about because of the excellence of the brandies and wines made by the mission padres in the San Juan Capistrano, San Fernando and San Gabriel missions. The fame of the fine liquors brewed by the Franciscan fathers soon spread far and wide. Early records show that the missions turned out in the neighborhood of 5000 gallons of brandy annually, that was regarded as being better than the finest imported from Europe.

Indians Liked It

Naturally, the good fathers did their best to keep the Indian converts from quenching their thirst in the mission cellars, but loaves, even in those days, had a habit of being broken and by one way or another the redskins managed to procure firewater; and having once acquired the thirst it became necessary to continue to slake it. Thus, the advent of the bootlegger.

However, since the bootleggers did not have the ways and means of entrance into the choice stock of the padres, they had to find a substitute. Through this substitute the poor Indian became the object of a great fraud which proved to be, rather inconspicuously, to his own advantage because it kept him sober, although not by choice.

Special Formula

The early day substitute for mission brandy was even worse than some of the stuff served in later days under the misnomer of liquor. Records show that little time nor effort was wasted in producing bootleg liquor. The method of preparation was simple. A

COUNTY GIVES AID TO 304 CHILDREN

Needy Youngsters Here
Get Average of $12
Each in Month

There were 304 needy children in Orange county during the month of November, who were paid $12.35 each by the county welfare department, figures released today from the state department of welfare show.

All told, the welfare department paid out a total of $3753.04 in welfare to needy children, during that month.

Twenty-five counties in the state averaged higher monthly payments than did this county, while one county, Alpine, had no needy children on its welfare rolls.

There were 127 families in Orange county from which the needy children were enrolled on the welfare department books.

Los Angeles county was credited with 7027 needy children, who received a total of $91,100.87. Needy children in San Francisco county received $18,471 apiece, the largest amount per child recorded in payments in any county in the state.

Total state payments during the month were $299,223.27, the state department said.

The state is permitted by law to pay up to $10 a month to each needy child, and the counties may supplement the amounts paid by the state. The counties under a recent federal law are now receiving allowances from the federal government to reimburse them in part for their contributions.

Mrs. Irvine Welcomed Home

Assistance Club Has Pretty Yuletide Luncheon

She and Mr. Irvine arriving from San Francisco this past week to remain over the Christmas holidays, Mrs. James Irvine opened her home on Myford Road, Tustin, again yesterday for the regular luncheon meeting of the Day Nursery Assistance club.

Presence of their leader added to the enjoyment of the day for the club group, who have met with her during her absence and in the northern part of the state during the summer and fall months.

Approach of the Yule season inspired the appointments chosen by the hostess for her tables in the dining room and sunroom, the larger centered with a silver mirror container of silver flowers and leaves. On the other, silver fruits filled another mirror bowl, and both arrangements were reflected in white mirror plateaus.

The usual games of contract followed in the afternoon. Sharing the hospitality of the Irvine home with the regular club members were the following guests from the official substitute list: Mrs. Lester Carden, Mrs. John McKittick, Mrs. Lawrence Coffing, Mrs. W. H. Spurgeon, Mrs. Wilbur Barr, and Mrs. Clarence Holmes.

50-50 HUSBANDS AND WIVES IN MEETINGS

Dinner dance at the Santa Ana Country club some time in January, with a golf tournament on the following day, are the next events on a social calendar of the Southern California Fifty-fifty club, according to plans made by the men of the club last night at a stag meeting at the home of V. B. Anderson on Louise street.

While the men met in their session, the women gathered for a social evening of bridge at the home of Mrs. Lawrence Mitchell at 1205 South Parton, enjoying a delicious supper after the card games. Poinsettias through the rooms and little pink and blue bouquets in white baskets on the tables formed a pretty decorative motif in the home, where the following gathered:

Mesdames Verlin Anderson, Estee Brown, E. F. Bruning, LeRoy Burns, Buddy Forster, Bill Grafton, Riley Hubert, Ewald Lemcke, Lawrence Mitchell, Bill McCoy, Stanley Norton, Bill Queale, James Tuma, Irving Wardman, Hume West, and the Misses Florence Diller, Lee Fernandez, Lolita Mead, Evelyn Heitzman, and Midge Norman.

Mrs. West, most recent bride in the group, was presented last night with a pretty blanket, a customary gift to the club's brides. Prizes in the bridge games went to Mrs. Huber, first, and to Mrs. Grafton, second.

GUSTLINS HAVE CHINA GUESTS

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Gustlin entertained interesting visitors at luncheon yesterday in their home on North Main street, when Dr. and Mrs. Arthur M. Young of Shanghai, China, former Occidental college classmates of Mrs. Gustlin, were their guests.

Also invited to share in their hospitality were Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Crozier Phillips of Santa Ana, the latter another classmate of theirs. Dr. Young is financial advisor for the Chinese government, and the son of Dr. William Young, prominent in Los Angeles Presbyterian circles. He and his wife are spending a few weeks in the United States before returning to China.

TEA AND SHOWER HONOR JUNE BRIDE

Mrs. Warren Bramley was instrumental in planning a charming post-nuptial courtesy recently for Mrs. Clyde Holland (Peggy McGarvin), whose wedding of last June was only recently announced to her friends by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar McGarvin of Hobart street.

Mrs. Bramley presided at the delightful affair, a surprise linen shower, in her home at 1324 South Sycamore, where sprays of holly, in pottery and vases and bouquets of poinsettia created a holiday atmosphere.

An informal program was enjoyed, with several of the guests taking part. Mrs. Arthur Smith singing two numbers, "Love Came Calling" and "One Alone," with accompaniment by the hostess, and Mrs. Cleland Harbaugh giving a musical reading, "In the Usual Way," accompanied by Miss Bernice Henderson, sister of the bride.

Later, all adjourned to the apartment next door where Miss Dorothy Hanna presided at a pretty tea table centered with a shallow bowl of catenaster berries lighted by white tapers.

Borrowing lovely English tea service from Mrs. William Lawson, Mrs. Bramley carried out an English theme in her menu, the Christmas colors appearing in the lime jelly squares with cherries. Invited to participate in the bridal courtesy were the Misses Dorothy Hanna, Esther Hohl, Louise Marshall, Merlene Julian, Gertrude Bramley, Billie Dedman, Mildred Pyatt, Eileen Steed, and Brynne Henderson, and the Mesdames Elmer Fowler, Ben Sargent, Edgar McGarvin, James Bramley, Arthur Smith, Cleland Harbaugh, LeRoy Craig, Orville Umberger, and Clyde Holland, the honored guest.

PLAN FOOD SHOWER

The Woman's Home Missionary society of the First Methodist church will meet Wednesday at 2 p. m. in the social hall of the church. A program consisting of a song by the "Lyric Trio," music and readings by the Burke Sisters, and a skit showing a missionary Christmas in a parsonage on the frontier, will be presented, after which there will be a shower donation of dried fruits, beans, and nuts, for the Yuma Indians.

Speech Arts Section In Luncheon Enjoyed

"Cooperatives" and "The Theater of Today" were the two interesting topics of discussion at yesterday's meeting of the speech arts section of Ebell club, members enjoying a most delightful day with Mrs. Edith Cloyes and Mrs. Franklin West as hostesses. Luncheon, served in the section room, with places laid on one long table centered with yellow and white flowers in a white swan container, preceded the program arranged by Mrs. Cloyes, the section program chairman.

As first speaker of the afternoon, Mrs. Minnie Holmes, one of the members, gave a most comprehensive talk on "Cooperatives," a subject which has been brought to the attention of Southland clubwomen in convention meetings this fall.

Mrs. Mark Lacy, section leader, then gave a splendid talk on "The Theater of Today," reviewing current plays, talking on the tendencies of the modern theater, and giving personal reminiscences of her acquaintances with actresses in the East, and her memories of Mme. Modjeska's plays in Santa Ana when she, Mrs. Lacy, was a small girl.

An interesting word drill, led by Mrs. Cloyes, concluded the afternoon, and next meeting was announced for Thursday, Jan. 23, skipping the December date. Hostesses in January will be Mrs. George Raymer and Mrs. Frank Paterson.

At each meeting, one member is appointed as critic. Mrs. Franklin West having the duty yesterday and giving fine, constructive criticism to each of the speakers.

BROTHER AND SISTER HONORED ON BIRTHDAYS

Honoring two of her children, Don Lewis, one year old, and Marjorie Dawn, nine, whose birthdays occur within three days of each other, Mrs. Ray Underwood entertained at a delightfully arranged little party yesterday afternoon in her home at 1909 South Sycamore street.

After a short honeymoon in the mountains, the couple will live in Anaheim, where the bridegroom owns an independent trucking business.

The bride is a graduate of Brean-Olinda High school and Fullerton Junior High school and Fullerton Junior college.

PLACENTIA COUPLE MARRIED

Wearing a smart brown tulle with green accessories, and attended by Miss Betty Ann Hasson, sister of the bridegroom, Miss Ruby White, charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. N. White of Placentia, was united in marriage Saturday afternoon with D. Willis Hasson, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Hasson of the same city.

The ceremony took place at the Santa Ana Wedding chapel, with the Rev. Mr. D. J. Brigham of the First Presbyterian church in Placentia officiating.

Before the ceremony, Mrs. Raymond Warren of Orange accompanied Miss Johanna Lemke in two vocal solos and then played the wedding marches. Forty guests witnessed the service, in which Miss Hasson and Joe Bailey of Anaheim acted as the attendants; and a dinner for the family followed at the Anne Marie tearoom in Placentia.

After a short honeymoon in the mountains, the couple will live in Anaheim, where the bridegroom owns an independent trucking business.

RIDERS WELCOME GRANDDAUGHTER

Their first grandchild, a little girl born Friday, Nov. 27, to Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Hodgson of 829 1/2 West Thirty-fourth street, Los Angeles, has brought cause for rejoicing into the home of Mr. and Mrs. Aden Rider of 714 Spurgeon street, Santa Ana.

The little girl, who weighed six pounds and 11 ounces when she was born at Glendale Research hospital, is also the first grandchild of Dr. and Mrs. W. C. Hodgson of Glendale, her paternal grandfather being pastor of the First Methodist church of that city.

Mr. and Mrs. Rider went up Friday to see the new arrival, returning home on Sunday. The baby has been named Beverly Jean.

ENTERTAIN FOUR AT DINNER

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh M. Gerrard entertained at an informal little dinner party last night at their home at 2009 Victoria drive, centering their table with chrysanthemums and marking places for the Rev. David M. Sayers, pastor of their church; Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Gerrard and Miss Alice Whitten.

ON VACATION

Miss Juanita Snyder of 210 South Birch street, is enjoying a two-week vacation from her duties in the county welfare department, having spent the first week with her sisters, Mrs. Terry Stephenson in Santa Ana and Mrs. W. L. Hart in Costa Mesa. This week, accompanied by her niece, Miss Elizabeth Hart, she is enjoying a stay at Vosberg's hotel in San Jacinto, and will return home Sunday.

Mary Stoddard We Have To Work Hard For Happiness And Give If We Expect To Receive

By MARY STODDARD

Today comes a letter that is both a general question and a personal recitation of unhappiness and disillusionment.

Dear Miss Stoddard: Is there anyone, man or woman, past the age of 35 who is not disillusioned? Human nature it is those wives and those husbands who are treated the kindest and cared for the most who are the least worthy.

Whether it is the kindness and care which makes them selfish and thoughtless or that type naturally attracts the "good" type of mate, I do not know.

Anyway, you seldom see two really selfish people or two really thoughtful people mated.

I am a woman past 35 and I have had two husbands. I had no happy home as a child, so when I was married, the greatest desire of my heart was a home. I did not ask for an elaborate one, just someplace where I could make a home and be at peace with the world.

Well, my husband was simply not interested in making a home. We ran around from pillar to post for seven years, Mr. and Mrs. Oimstead of Glendale, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Daniger, Dr. and Mrs. Hubert Nall, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Ragan, Mr. and Mrs. Rapp and the Yosts.

At the end of the evening, Mrs. Yost served cake, coffee and cider to their guests.

RECENT BRIDE HONORED ON BIRTHDAY

Candlelight and pink and white appointments made a pretty picture of the lace-spread birthday table, centered with pink and white chrysanthemums, on a mirror plateau, and four pink candles.

Ice cream and a pink and white birthday cake were served after several hours of games, prizes in which went to Mrs. H. P. Lowell and Mrs. Asher.

The G. W. Lowells, a recent bride and bridegroom, spent Thanksgiving with the Lowell family in Riverside.

EPISCOPAL WOMEN IN PARTY TOMORROW

Messiah branch of the Episcopal church will entertain the church auxiliary at a Christmas party tomorrow afternoon, and an especially large attendance is expected.

Mrs. H. L. Stone and Mrs. J. L. Allen are in charge of the decorating, and have chosen Christmas berries for the hall. Mrs. E. P. Museum and her committee will be in charge of refreshments; and Mrs. George Chapman and Mrs. A. H. Farrar will plan contest games as a part of the entertainment.

ALLEN ENJOY DESERT TRIP

Judge and Mrs. J. L. Allen returned Monday from a visit of several days with friends in their former home town, Brawley, in the Imperial valley.

While there, Mrs. Allen was honored by her hosts at a musical tea to which 100 guests were invited, and many acquaintances were renewed. Mrs. Allen had not seen some of these friends for 14 years, and the visit proved a happy one.

HONOR SALLY JOAN CLARKE

Sally Joan Clarke, daughter of the C. W. Clarke of 1213 North Van Ness, was honored by her mother at a pretty party Saturday afternoon at their home, the incentive for the party being Sally Joan's 12th birthday anniversary occurring the following day.

The young hostess, who had come with her family from Fairfield, Iowa, to spend the winter in the city, invited 14 of her school chums to share the afternoon of Monopoly games which concluded with a dainty refreshment course.

Pink roses and a white and silver birthday cake lighted by 12 candles formed pretty appointments for the table, at which the children were seated for the repeat.

S. O. O. B. Beaucant will elect officers when it meets at 2 p. m. tomorrow in the Masonic temple.

Harold Yosts Entertain Club

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Yost entertained their dinner bridge club Saturday night at Danigers, seating their guests at a charmingly arranged table centered with chrysanthemums in shades to match the service dishes. Candles in the same colors rose from the cluster of flowers at each end of the table.

After the guests had enjoyed a good turkey dinner and a time of social chat, they went to the Yost home at 502 Wellington street for a game of contract. High scores at the close went to Mrs. Paul Oimstead and E. T. McFadden.

In the absence of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Rapp, Mr. and Mrs. McFadden were invited as guest substitutes. Members of the club, friends who have played together for seven years, are Mr. and Mrs. Oimstead of Glendale, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Daniger, Dr. and Mrs. Hubert Nall, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Ragan, Mr. and Mrs. Rapp and the Yosts.

At the end of the evening, Mrs. Yost served cake, coffee and cider to their guests.

GIVE DINNER AT COUNTRY CLUB

Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Crenshaw of 2332 North Flower street recently honored the former's office force at a lovely outing at the Santa Ana Country club, where about 20 couples gathered for afternoon and evening.

Bridge was enjoyed by the wives while the men went around the golf course; and at 6 o'clock all gathered around one long table which Mrs. Crenshaw had decorated artistically with long sprays of yellow jasmine trailing from an orange pottery plate of fruits. Orange candles in blue glass holders were placed along the table at either side of the center.

DENTAL SOCIETY DINES

Orange County Dental society will dine at the Santa Ana Country club Wednesday evening.

YUMA MARRIAGE IS ANNOUNCED

Taking their place among the newlyweds of the city this week are Mr. and Mrs. Max Elliott (Helen Baker), who were married a week ago in Yuma, Ariz., and who returned to Santa Ana Saturday night after a trip to the Grand Canyon and Boulder dam.

The young couple were married quietly in the Arizona town by a close friend of the family, the bride, who is the daughter of Mrs. Artie Baker and the late Pierre Baker of 621 South Orange street, Orange, wearing a smart oxford gray tailored suit with gray caracul trimming and dubonnet accessories.

They will be at home after Dec. 1 in the new home which has been built for them at 1422 West Eighth street.

Mr. Elliott has been a resident of Santa Ana all his life, and is the son of County Cattle stable Jesse L. Elliott and Mrs. Elliott, of 617 East Bishop. Since high school graduation, he has been with Williams and Klenz Electrical company here, and Mrs. Elliott is employed in the office of the same firm. The latter attended Santa Ana Junior college after graduating from Orange Union High school.

DINNER BEFORE DANCE

Wylie Carlyle entertained a group of friends at dinner at Danigers Saturday evening, later taking his guests to the Junior Ebell dance. Those enjoying his hospitality were Guy O. Berry and daughter, Miss Pauline Berry, Miss Alma McClain and Alfred Forcay.

Too Many Vitamins Are Dangerous

By CLAUD CHRISMAN, M.D.
In 1914, Dr. McCollum announced his discovery of vitamin A in butter fat, milk and egg yolk. Others joined in the experimental work and the people became vitamin-conscious in a few years.

Vitamins were everything and their proper consumption would cure everything. Well, all I can say is they won't.

Almost all of the vitamins can now be produced in a pure state. It is also found that too much vitamin may be as dangerous as too little. An excess of cod liver oil, especially in children under two years of age, has been found to cause serious heart trouble.

Parents say to me, "what was used to help babies grow bone and muscle before cod liver oil came into general use?" Well, we always had sunlight. It shone on the babies, their mothers, the cows, the corn, the wheat, the vegetables and thus provided all the vitamins we seemed to need. It is only when we are cooped up in cities with smoke and dust to cut off the ultra-violet rays of the sun or are otherwise deprived of sunlight that we need concentrated vitamins.

Natural foods contain all the elements we need. It was only after rice had the outer coating removed to prevent the rice from spoiling that beriberi was produced. We milled our wheat to produce fine white flour and took away all the bran; then we ate bran to restore it and get too much bran.

McCollum, advice is "Eat what you want after you have eaten what you should." And what should we eat? Milk, leafy vegetables, fruits, and eggs with meat in moderation. These are the protective foods.

To the diets of infants, children and nursing mothers, McCollum would add cod liver oil and vitamin D, since none of the usual foods contain enough of this vitamin for infant growth. Much of our undernourishment, poor teeth and poor bone development in children is due to faulty diet, in which too many sweets have prevented the appetite for wholesome food.

GROUP DINES BEFORE DANCE

Before the Junior Ebell dance Saturday night, a group of friends met at Daniger's tea room for a Dutch treat dinner. Mrs. Herbert Stroschein, who was general chairman of the dance, and Dr. Stroschein being accorded the places at head and foot of the table.

Others in the party were Mr. and Mrs. Ferris Scott, Mr. and Mrs. William Croddy, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence McFadden, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Low, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Terry, Miss Katherine Spicer, and Arthur Flint.

Table appointments were all in white and green and candlelight. After dinner, the group adjourned to the Ebell clubhouse.

CHURCH WOMEN MEET

The Women's Union of the First Congregational church will meet tomorrow for the regular monthly session at the church. There will be a covered dish luncheon at noon, with the Northwest section members acting as hostesses.

Mrs. J. E. Paul, leader who has just returned from a trip to Mexico, will conduct the business meeting at which the nominating committee will give its report and plans will be made for the annual January dinner of the group. Mrs. Sally Powell is program chairman.

A Graceful Carriage Gives Ageless Charm

Let's cultivate the charm that lasts when youth is gone! A graceful carriage—that long lasting beauty treatment which takes neither time nor money—is within easy reach of all.

Simply standing or sitting correctly at daily tasks does more to beautify the figure than diet or exercise can.

Do you perch unattractively on the edge of your chair, needlessly exhausting yourself? Or use the small of your back for a sitting apparatus, encouraging hips to spread and stomach muscles to sag? Both positions are incorrect. By balancing your weight evenly over your two "sitting bones" you give yourself a lovely line of ease and repose.

Our 32-page booklet explains and illustrates how to stand for poise and beauty, all about face packs, special shampoos, make-up for ageless charm after 30.

Send 10 cents for your copy of Beauty After Thirty to The Journal Home Service, 117 East Fifth Street, Santa Ana, Calif. Be sure to write plainly your name, address, and the name of booklet.

Thomas Hooker, born in 1586, founded the town of Hartford and the colony of Connecticut.

JUNIOR TWO-PIECER A "MUST HAVE" FOR WINTER SAYS MARIAN MARTIN

Just count the up-to-the-minute features of this adorably youthful frock, if you'd know why school mornings are Marianne's favorites, for it's thrilling to walk into the classroom in a new, two-piece frock. Not one, but two smart fabrics may be used for making Pattern 9983, a handsome, durable cotton-tweed for the button-front blouse, and a sturdy wool jersey for the pleated skirt. Whether she's a grad or high-school miss, half of the appeal of a two-piece lies in changing its blouse and skirt about with an extra blouse one day, an extra skirt the next. You'll find this a gloriously easy pattern to use, for the Complete Diagrammed Marian Martin Sew Chart explains each step in simple fashion. So send for the pattern today, and start this gay new frock.

Pattern 9983 may be ordered only in sizes 8, 10, 12, 14 and 16. Size 12 requires 2 1/4 yards 54-inch fabric.

Send 15 cents in coins or stamps (coins preferred) for each Marian Martin pattern. Be sure to write plainly your size, name, address, and style number.

Townsend News, Views

By WALTER R. ROBB

(This is a non-political, non-partisan column, dealing in Townsend news and views, and written by a prominent Townsend leader. Any opinions which are expressed herein are not necessarily those of The Journal.)

All Townsend club officers, speakers, and past presidents are eligible to attend the Orange County Townsend association meeting tonight. It will be held in Townsend hall at 509 West Fourth street, Santa Ana. Grant Henderson, president, will call the meeting to order at 7:30 p. m. All club members reading this column will please call their club officers' attention to the need of attending this meeting. Election of officers for the first six months of 1937 will be held.

Santa Ana club No. 6 will hold its regular weekly meeting at 7:30 tonight. This club meets in the community hall of the First Christian church at Sixth and Broadway every Tuesday evening. E. M. Fuller is president. Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Mapes will relate incidents in the Townsend movement in New York state during the summer.

Santa Ana club No. 4, of which W. A. Moonaw is president, is postponing its meeting tonight to attend the county Townsend association meeting. Club No. 8, which meets in the Lincoln school on French street, will hold its meeting as usual at 7:30 tonight.

A large gathering was present Saturday evening in Townsend hall in Santa Ana at the mass meeting of Orange county Townsends. A turkey dinner was served to 85 diners. L. C. Carlisle was the chairman of the evening and handled the meeting in very splendid manner.

The meeting began with Rev. W. H. White of Laguna offering the invocation. Herbert F. Kenny, accompanied on the piano by Miss Lizetta Phillips, led the audience in the singing of America and community singing. The flag was saluted and a pledge of loyalty to it and the nation was recited. The speaker of the evening was Ernest S. Morrow, Los Angeles.

He began his address in an easy conversational way which seemed to bespeak of the fine message that followed.

His first statements were in the form of a review of Townsend movement accomplishments. He portrayed the restlessness of the nation's citizens, and the lack of any kind of hope for better things at the time Dr. Townsend conceived and launched the Townsend plan.

In a few swift sketches he went back over the election campaign period and gave emphasis to the mistake of the Townsend movement becoming in a degree partisan in its political activities. This, he said, must be forgotten and steps taken to make sure that partisan attitudes are never again injected into the movement. This seemed to strike an agreement of opinion and conviction of the audience, judging by the way they applauded the statement. And especially vigorous was the applause when he stated that from now on the sole endeavor politically would be to place and retain in congress the type of men who would give 100 per cent loyalty to Townsend plan interests.

He reviewed the difference that would be existing in the seventy-fifth congress from what had prevailed previously. In the last session he pointed out the congressmen who were for the Townsend plan were pretty well distributed within a very few states. This will not be true in the coming congress. Every state in the union, he said, will have at least one congressman who was elected as an

THORN in the FLESH

Tempus fugit! And how!

Fifty-five-year-old John Barry married 21-year-old Elaine Barrie and has now settled down (we hope) to married life. Father Coughlin has quit the radio and gone to Bermuda, while President Roosevelt is in South America. Betty Vorce and Eleanor Wisner took a ride, plunged over a cliff 200 feet into the ocean, and escaped with minor bruises. Newport-Balboa had a $10,000 fire. Eggs hatched and bananas rotted (and still do) on strike bound vessels. A machine was demonstrated to pick up walnuts faster than you could count 'em. The San Francisco bridge has been opened. Mne. Schumann-Heink has sung her last earthly song and has joined the heavenly choir. The stork derby was ruled valid; Uncle King Tutwiler has abdicated. An 18-year-old San Diego girl dancer will dance no more, having sacrificed a leg to the god of speed.

It has all happened since election day—less than a month ago.

Downtown light poles are now "Christmas trees" and local banks are distributing $45,000 in Christmas savings money today. There are only 20 more shopping days and Christmas will be here before we know it. It's old stuff to "Do Your Christmas Shopping Early."

I know, but remember—

Time flies! And how!

Nazis to Deport Convicted Seaman

BERLIN. (AP)—Lawrence B. Simpson, American seaman under three-years' sentence for circulating Communist literature in the Reich, will be released on Dec. 29 and turned over to the American consulate general for deportation to the United States, it was announced today.

Simpson, convicted in September after having been held for 14 months in concentration camps, recently applied through the consulate-general for a pardon. He said he did not realize the extent to which he had interfered with the political affairs of another nation, and that he was sorry.

New Players to Make Debut Here In 'Judgment Day'

Santa Anans will not only see the return of many of their old-time favorites, when they witness endorse of the Townsend plan. And in many states there will be several. But being scattered from every state of the union as he pointed out there is greater possibility of developing congressional pressure on opposing congressmen. And such strategy will be used, he prophesied. He pointed out the probability of most opposing congressmen being more cautious in the use of their opposition, because that two years hence there will be another election in which they must again participate.

He was of the opinion that the severest testing of the Townsend membership was to come in the near future when former representatives of the Townsend movement to the Pacific coast to launch their plan now being formulated. Earl Clements, former national secretary of the Townsend movement, he stated, would likely be among the group who would seek to establish their competitive organization. Here he asked for a showing of hands from those who would pledge themselves to remain loyal to Dr. Townsend and his movement. A great sea of hands waving in the air, and shouts of "I will," was the response.

Use Make-Up To Last All Evening

By JACQUELINE HUNT

The real test of good make-up is not how you look when you go to the smartest party of the year, but how you look when you say good-bye! Anyone, given a moderate amount of good looks, a smart coiffure and a lovely gown can look nice and lovely out for a party, but it takes extra time and skill to apply make-up so it will last all evening and look right.

Whatever kind of skin you have, your make-up should start with a mask (especially good for oily skins) or a facial such as we described in yesterday's column. Be sure to remove every trace of the cream or mask with skin freshener or warm water.

If your skin is normal, apply a make-up base of the cream variety. Or, if experience has proven this is not entirely satisfactory, try blending a small amount of the cream until fluffy with a little liquid powder. Apply it evenly and sparingly over your entire face and neck to give the skin a petal-like smoothness.

Now blend cream rouge on your cheeks, a little more than usual, but keep the edges soft so they fade into your natural complexion tones. This cream rouge is ideal for parties, since it will not need renewing during the evening.

Next, dip your powder puff in your powder, and press it on your face until your face is heavily powdered. Wait for a minute or two, then remove all the excess with a soft powder brush or a big clean piece of cotton. Powder applied in this way stays for hours.

The decorative touches—eye makeup and lipstick—come last. Use waterproof mascara to darken the lashes and make them look long and silky. Try an eye shadow that flatters your eyes or repeats a costume color, eyebrow pencil to give your brows a neat, definite line, and finally lipstick that harmonizes with the shade of your rouge.

New Liquor Fee Plan Starts Soon

LOS ANGELES. (AP)—Advocated as a means of eliminating "fly-by-nighters" and reducing administration expense, a board of equalization ruling requiring payment of yearly liquor license fees in advance goes into effect Jan. 1.

"If liquor dealers are not sufficiently sound to afford a yearly fee, then they should not be in business," State Administrator George M. Stone told the board at its hearing here.

Carasco Inspired By Wrestling Bout

Seeing the wrestling matches last night at the highway 101 arena aroused something of the grappler in Henry Carasco.

He started in with various tooth-holds and half-nelsons on surrounding spectators, witnesses said.

They objected, and so did deputy sheriffs, who took him to the county jail and booked him on drunk charges.

Youth Jailed on Check Charges

A 16-year-old Westminster boy was in the county jail today, facing felony charges of issuing bogus checks on a Santa Ana department store and service station.

The boy, whose name is being withheld by The Journal because of his youth, was arrested by sheriff's officers yesterday. He will have a preliminary hearing in Huntington Beach justice court.

By proclamation sent the federal government, the "Free and Independent State" of Dade, in northwest Georgia, withdrew from the United States before the rest of Georgia seceded. After the war so written document ever announced the county's return to the Union.

Bananas For Quick Meals

By JUDITH WILSON

"Be prepared" is good gospel; "cooking ahead" is splendid in theory; planning and charting each day's meals in advance is virtuous. But there comes a time in every woman's life when it just can't be done before the last minute.

There is the day when your gossiping neighbor stays until 6 o'clock and you haven't planned a salad or dessert for dinner, or the time when you have a lot of marketing to do and cannot get home until almost time for the children to get in from school, hungry and in a hurry to be off again.

Then there are days—admit them or not—when you didn't have a thing to do but you just didn't get around to making anything special. For such days you should be prepared by keeping a supply of bananas in the fruit bowl, a package each of marshmallows and dates on your pantry shelf and a pint of cream in your refrigerator.

Bananas are especially quick to prepare. One, two, three strips and they're peeled. Six or eight quick motions with the knife and they are sliced; a few more magic moves and they are turned into a delicious dessert or salad. They will even cook in five minutes and you can serve them as a meat accompaniment or main dish for luncheon or supper.

Maypops are known as "passion fruit."

SARGA MAY BE DISQUALIFIED

By JUDITH WILSON

BUDAPEST. (AP)—A Hungarian court of honor reported today to be contemplating disqualification of pugnacious little Dr. Franz Sarga from his remaining duels because he's talked too much.

The honor code under which Sarga must conduct his unfinished dueling business requires that fighting gentlemen keep the details of their quarrels secret.

Dr. Sarga, who has fought two encounters and wants to engage in seven more against young bloods who sneered at his marriage to a Budapest belle, has not been particularly tight-lipped.

Dueling purists even pointed out he rode to the field of honor last week in a reporter's car before wounding one opponent and missing the second.

However, the diminutive duelist insisted he had fixed everything up because, when called upon by police, he denied—as a gentleman should—that he had duelled at all. A high police officer also as a gentleman—accepted his word.

WHAT KIND OF FELLOW IS HARRY?

OH, HE'S SWEET! HAVEN'T YOU MET HIM?

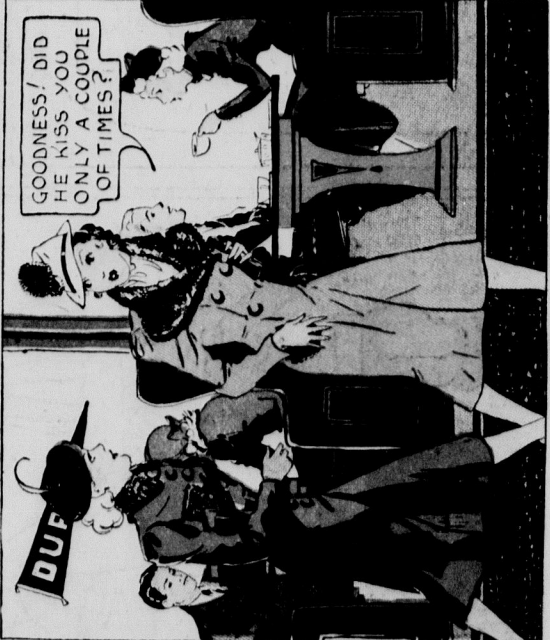

YE BASS LITTLE NO, I HAVEN'T

HE'S REAL GOOD-LOOKING, HAS SCADS OF MONEY AND ROY, IS HE AFFECTIONATE?

LAST NIGHT, COMING HOME, HE INSISTED ON KISSING ME A COUPLE OF TIMES.

GOODNESS, DID HE KISS YOU ONLY A COUPLE OF TIMES?

NO—BUT AFTER TWICE, HE DIDN'T HAVE TO INSIST!

WOW! FRESH BAKED PEACH PIES! BOOBY! NOT I COULD DO TO ONE OF THOSE BABIES RIGHT NOW!

GO AHEAD, GRAB ONE OF THEM AN' RUN! NOW GOOD TELL TASTE! SWEEET! NOT A MISS JUST ONE LITTLE OL' PIE!

YOU'LL BE SORRY IF YOU DO, I NEVER SAW YOU ACT LIKE THIS BEFORE—YOU OUGHT TO BE ASHAMED OF YOURSELF!

WHAT'S THE MATTER WITH YOU? YOU KNOW VERY WELL IT ISN'T RIGHT TO TAKE THINGS THAT DON'T BELONG TO YOU!!

GO ON, TAKE IT! DON'T LET THAT GUY TALK YOU OUT OF IT... ARE YOU A MAN, OR ARE YOU A MOUSE? GRAB THAT PIE!

IT SURE GIVES A GUY A LOT OF SATISFACTION KNOWING HE'S GOT POWER ENOUGH TO OVERCOME TEMPTATION AN' CARRY ON WITH A CLEAR CONSCIENCE!!

THERE YOU GO AGAIN! LISTENING TO THAT FLY BY NIGHT? GO ON, HOOK THAT FLY AN' SCRAM! GO ON!

SLAM!

THE NUT BROS. & WAL.

I BEAT YOU BY A DAY—YESTERDAY I FINISHED MY NEW SIDEWALK—IT LOOKS LIKE STONE, BUT IT'S MADE OF RUBBER, AND WEARS LIKE IRON! DROP A COIN, AND IT BOUNCES RIGHT BACK—AND YOU CAN'T HURT YOURSELF WHEN YOU FALL!

I'VE JUST PERFECTED A NON-SLID RUG FOR POLISHED PARQUET FLOORS—IT HAS HUNDREDS OF TACKS WOVEN ON THE UNDER SIDE, AND THE MORE YOU TRAMP ON IT THE FIRMER IT GRIPS!

Major Hoople

JOBS I WOULD LIKE: TWO-CAR GARAGE BUILDER IN AN AFRICAN VILLAGE!

OUR BOARDING HOUSE

AMOS! SOMEONE LEFT THE RADIO ON—GO DOWN ON—GO DOWN AND SHUT IT OFF!

DRAIT IT! ONE DECENT NIGHT'S SLEEP IN THIS HOUSE!

MAJOR HOOPLE

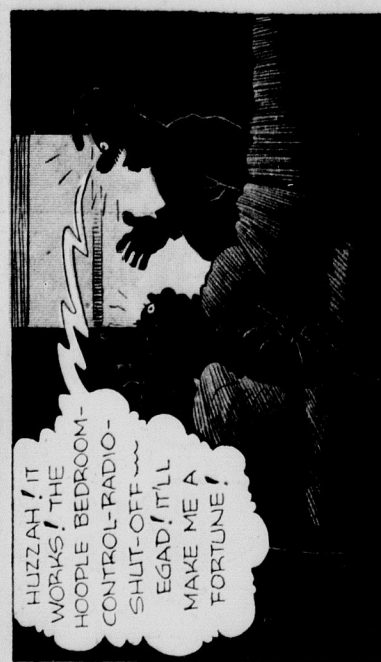

NOW IS A PERFECT TIME TO CONNECT THAT GADGET I MADE THAT AUTOMATICALLY MUFFLES THE RADIO WHEN THE BED-LAMP IS TURNED OFF—EGAD!

HAW! NOW TO TRY OUT MY MARVELOUS INVENTION! MY SWEET WATCH!

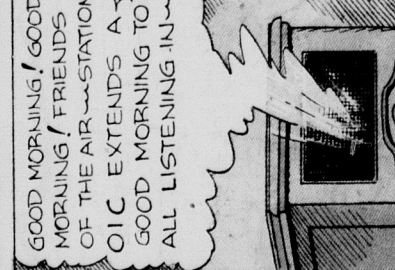

STATION OIC SAYING GOOD-NIGHT

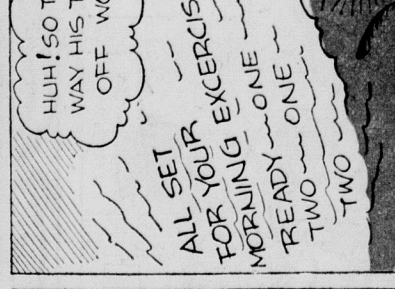

HUZZAH! IT WORKS! THE HOOPLE BEDROOM-CONTROL-RADIO-SHUT-OFF—EGAD! IT'LL MAKE ME A FORTUNE!

WHEN I TURNED OFF THE LAMP, THE RADIO AUTOMATICALLY WAS SILENCED!

GOOD MORNING! GOOD MORNING! FRIENDS OF THE AIR—STATION OIC EXTENDS A GOOD MORNING TO ALL LISTENING IN—

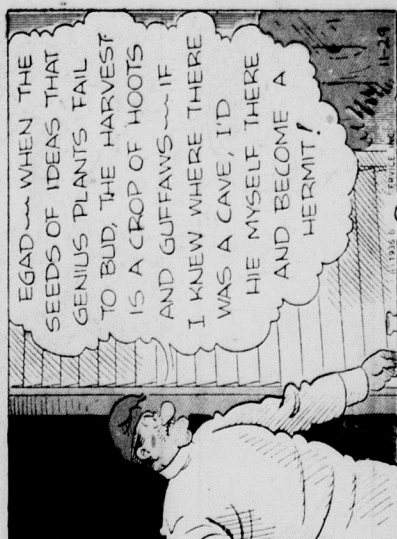

HEY! BLUNDER BOOB! CLIMB OUT OF THE SHUT-OFF WORKS! PADDING AND CHOKE THE RADIO BEFORE IT RILES THE NEIGHBORHOOD

AND WHILE YOU'RE UP, GO TO THE BACK DOOR AND BRING IN THE MILK, AND PUT A HAND VIBRATOR ON THE FURNACE GRATE! THIS HOUSE IS AS COLD AS AN ICED MACKEREL! NOW ON YOUR TOES—ONE—TWO—ONE

LISTEN YOU BIG BARU OWL—WHAT'S THE GIANT IDEA OF TURNING ON THE RADIO AT THIS HOUR OF THE MORNING? WHAT IS THIS, A COUNTING HOUSE?

EGAD—WHEN THE SEEDS OF IDEAS THAT GENIUS PLANTS FAIL TO BUD, THE HARVEST IS A CROP OF HOOTS AND GUFFAWS—IF I KNEW WHERE THERE WAS A CAVE, I'D HIE MYSELF THERE AND BECOME A HERMIT!

Special Nurse
by RAY THOMPSON
and CHARLES COLL

HAVING BROUGHT CURRY SAFELY BACK TO THE PALACE BY WAY OF THE SECRET TUNNEL, MYRA QUICKLY CHANGES INTO HER NURSES UNIFORM AGAIN.

WE MUST NOW PREPARE TO STAGE OUR FINAL AND MOST IMPORTANT BIT OF STRATEGY, HERE!

HAVE YOU A REPORT ON THE KING'S CONDITION BEFORE I GO IN, DR. PANZIG?

HERE - READ IT YOURSELF.

BELOW, IN THE Foyer, ZORIA WAITS IMPATIENTLY FOR HIS AUDIENCE WITH THE KING.

FOOTMAN - YOU MAY TELL COL ZORIA, HIS MAJESTY NOW IS READY FOR THE INTERVIEW.

A FEW MOMENTS LATER, ZORIA IS ADMITTED TO THE ROYAL BED CHAMBER.

HIS EXCELLENCY, COLONEL ZORIA:

OH, COLONEL - THIS WAY, IF YOU PLEASE!

NICE OF YOU TO CALL, COLONEL.

THE KING! AND THE PRINCE!

AT THE SIGHT OF ZORIA, THE CROWD BELOW THE BALCONY REMEMBERING HOW HE KEPT THE PRINCE PRISONER, STARTS BOOING AND JEEERING! DESPERATELY ZORIA LOOKS ABOUT FOR A MEANS OF ESCAPE.

AT THAT MOMENT, AN ENTHUSIASTIC BURST OF CHEERING IS HEARD OUTSIDE. ZORIA QUICKLY FOLLOWS MYRA THROUGH THE BALCONY DOORS.

MY LOYAL SUBJECTS SEEM TO FEEL ANGUISH WOULD BE A SAFER PLACE IF THE COLONEL WERE UNDER ARREST!

COME WITH ME!

ARREST?

THIS IS A PLEASURE, ZORIA!

MYRA, YOU'RE JUST WONDERFUL! YOU'VE SAVED MY UNCLE'S LIFE AND MINE. I'M SO GLAD. NOW I WON'T HAVE TO BE KING! BUT MYRA - IF EVER I AM THE KING, I WISH YOU COULD BE MY QUEEN!

WHY, CURRY, THAT SOUNDS JUST LIKE A PROPOSAL - YOU DARLING!

MYRA UNCOVERS A THRILLING NEW MYSTERY NEXT WEEK!!

ANOTHER DRESS? I THOUGHT YOU JUST BOUGHT ONE BOOTS

OH, BUT THAT WAS A BLUE ONE

YOU SEE A GAL. REALLY? WELL, NOW SHE'S TO HAVE A DRESS TO MATCH HER MOODS

SURE! I'VE GOT IT A HONEY?

YES, INDEED! LET'S SEE. NOW - I SUPPOSE WHEN YOU'RE LOW IN SPIRIT THE BLUE DRESS WOULD BE JUST THE TICKET

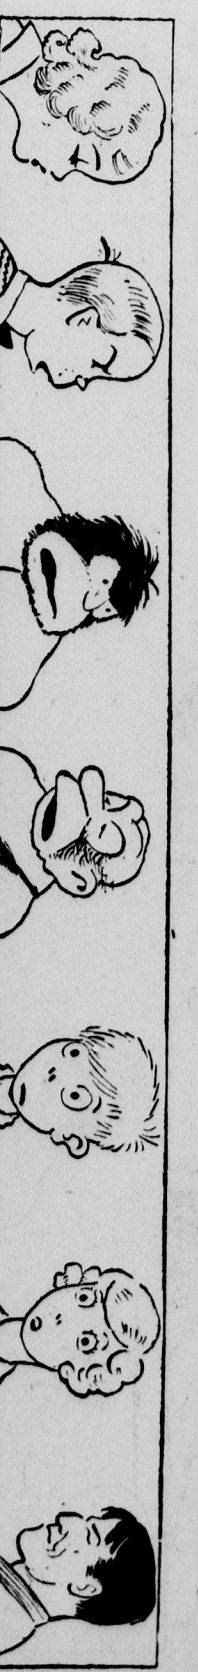

AND IN A MELLOW STATE OF MIND, I PRESUME A SOBERE SHADE WOULD BE THE THING! OTHERWISE, GREEN WOULD FIT PERFECTLY INTO A JEALOUS RAGE - AND, I SUPPOSE A SPARKING SCARLET WOULD WARN OF DANGER AHEAD, EH?

OH, IF I'M MAD ENOUGH, I SEE RED. NO MATTER WHAT COLOR MY DRESS IS

AND, INCIDENTALLY - GORR, HE'S JUST SLIPPED ON THE REDDEST RED DRESS I EVER SAW

AMM MYRA!! I'M MY WORD - YOU DON'T SAY

LAMB!! I JUST THOUGHT OF SOME UNFINISHED WORK AT THE LABORATORY!! - YOU NEEDN'T WAIT UP FOR ME

YOU GET YOUR MOTHER'S VACUUM! WELL, YOU'VE GOT TO HELP US CLEANER, AN' YOU CAN KEEP MY SISTER IN THE HOUSE. THE GAME IS OVER, THEY WON'T COME TO THE DOOR WHEN THEY SEE WHAT YOU GOT!

IT'D HATE TO WORK AT THIS—I COULDN'T SELL ANY BURGERS DURING A FAMINE.

YEH, BUT YOU GOTTA DO ME A LITTLE FAVOR NOW.

GOOD GOSH—THERE COME MY MOTHER AND SISTER HOME AN' WHEN MOM FINDS OUT I HAVEN'T DONE MY WORK, SHE'LL SEND SIS AFTER ME!

WELL, I GOT IT OUT WITHOUT WASTIN' A LOT OF PRECIOUS TIME EXPLAININ'!

HOW DO YOU DO?

ANYTHING WITHIN OUR POWER, BOY! JUST SAY WHAT IT IS—

YOU GOTTA STICK TO THE GAME OUT, WILLIS—WE GOT IT WON!

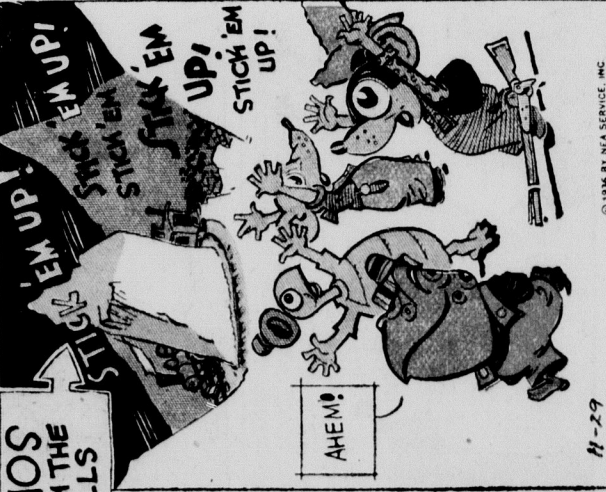

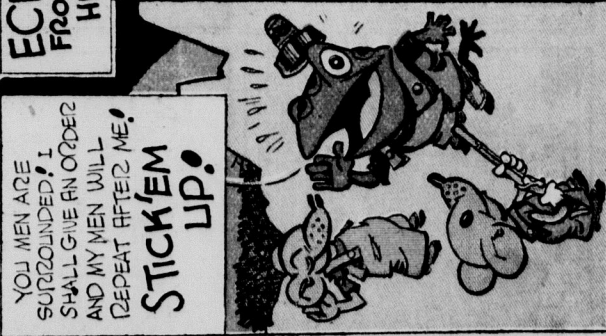

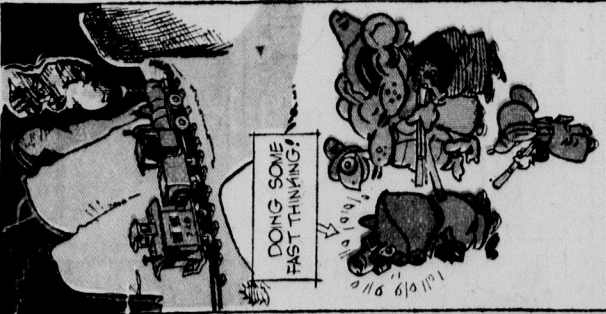

THEY'LL LET ON THEY AINT HOME, AN' I'LL STALL AROUND RINGIN' THE BELL LONG ENOUGH FOR TH' LAST HALF TO BE OVER.

WHEEEEE—WE WON! WE WON—I DON'T CARE WHAT HAPPENS NOW!

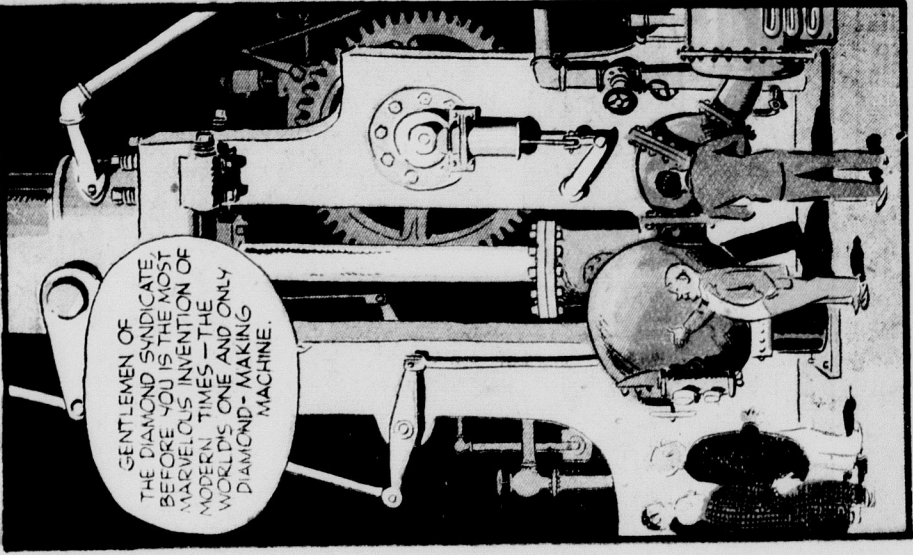

HURRY UP! I GOT TO GET THAT THING HOME.

A TON SIR, MERELY A TON MACHINE—THOSE COMPLETE SPECIFICATIONS NEVER HAD LEFT THIS SAFE.

AND ALSO TO EXAMINE THIS PAN OF CARBON WHICH SOON WILL BE TRANSFORMED INTO A GLITTERING BLUE-WHITE GEM.

AND NOW, GENTLEMEN, I SHALL PRODUCE THE IDENTICAL CONDITIONS UNDER WHICH NATURE MAKES DIAMONDS. BUT FIRST, LET ME ASK THAT YOU EXAMINE THE INTERIOR MECHANISM TO SEE THAT NO DIAMONDS ARE CONCEALED.

GOOD, YOU'RE SATISFIED THAT I'M NOT RESORTING TO TRICKERY, WE'RE READY TO START. THE CARBON IS PLACED IN THE ELECTRICAL OVEN.

BONK!
GARRRRROOP!
18 SECONDS PASS. I PULL GADGETS—THERE ARE STRANGE NOISES, STRANGE ODORS.

THE MOLTEN CARBON EXPLODES INTO A VACUUM OF INTENSE COLD—AND PRESTO! OUT POES A 10 CARAT DIAMOND.

GREAT SCOTT! WHY, IT'S STILL HOT. IT'S PERFECT!

PLIZ, SIGNORES, RAISE THE HANDS. MEISTER BELFRY, YOU WEL, KINDLY OPEN THE SAFE—I DESIRE THE FORMULA AND SPECIFICATIONS OF YOUR WANDERFUL DEESCCOVERY.

ADVENTURE A STAMPS

by I. Sklenar

HE WOULD NOT FIGHT FOR A THRONE

OR nearly three years ex-Emperor Karl of Austria-Hungary fled to safety in exile for the day when they could return to the throne from which world peace, and revolution in their own country, had banded in final failure.

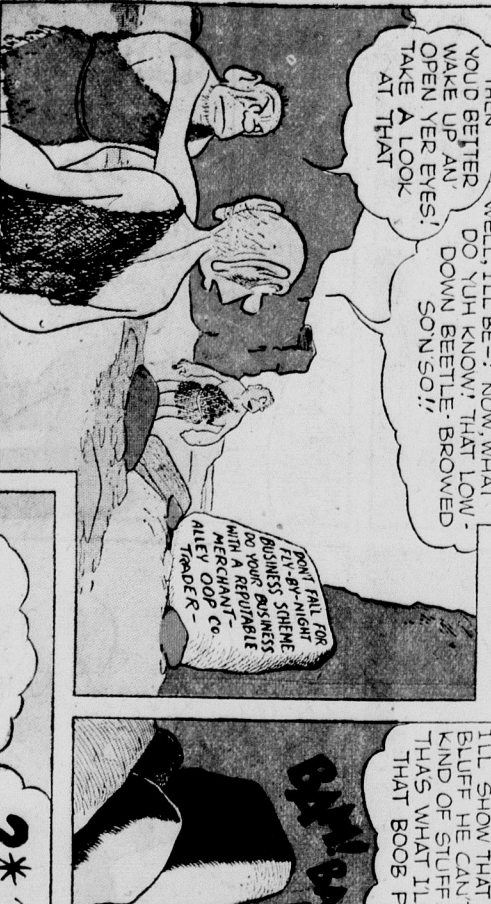

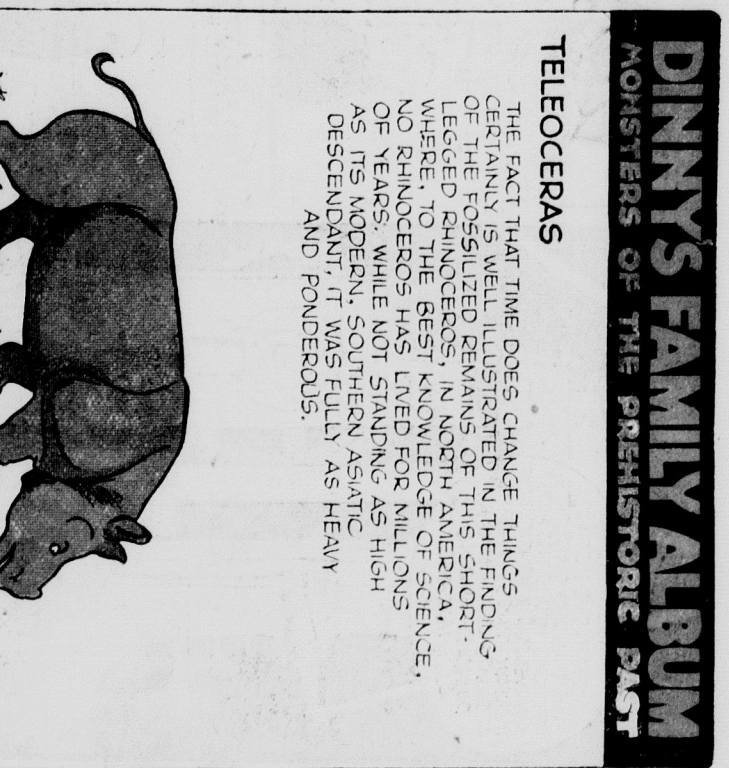

At Raab, the procession stopped for Sunday open-air mass. Suddenly cannons boomed in the distance. Soldiers fell wounded. General Lehar, who had fled into action, but Karl stopped him.

MONSTERS OF THE PREHISTORIC PAST

TELOCERAS

THE FACT THAT TIME DOES CHANGE THINGS CERTAINLY IS WELL ILLUSTRATED IN THE FINDING OF THE FOSSILED REMAINS OF THIS SHORT-LEGGED DINOSAUR. NOT ONLY AMERICA, BUT THE REST OF THE WORLD HAS EVIDENCE OF THESE DINOSAURS. THEY LIVED FOR MILLIONS OF YEARS WHILE NOT STANDING AS HIGH AS ITS MODERN, SOUTHERN ASIAN DESCENDANT, IT WAS FULL AS HEAVY AND POUNDEROUS.
